Local Couples See Fairyland Splendor

By FRAN MAIER

All the glamour of a beloved fairy tale was re-enacted Saturday night at the Sheraton-Cadillac hotel when a 22-year-old Yugoslavian girl portrayed the part of Cinderella and met her prince charming.

Over the heartline seated in the Grand Ballroom were figures of a coach and four horsemen, the fairy godmother, clock, mice and castles rising into fluffy clouds against a blue sky providing the setting where the gracious young lady took the arm of a real prince charming, the young, handsome Hollywood star, Jeff Richards.

The big formal event, the Cinderella Ball, is sponsored annually by the Women's Committee of the TB and Health Society. Funds obtained from the sale of the $100-a-couple ball tickets are allocated to needs vital in combating tuberculosis in Wayne County.

comes and decorations, and it would have been hard to choose which lady wore the most superb gown. However, one can hardly forget Mary Heisigan's black chiffon with a feather trim—a Maurice Rentner design of Mrs. Warren Avis' floor-length yellow satin topped by a green satin coat.

Mrs. William Newberg's lavish, bouffant gown was in green satin. Mrs. Max Brock's was in blue satin and Mrs. Roy Fruehauf in mauve. A gresian style gown with a swirl side drape was worn by Mrs. Henry S. Young, while Mrs. Langdon Crane chose black taffeta and Mrs. Maynard Andrew, green taffeta.

The local ladies with their husbands and guests enjoyed the after-dinner floor show at small tables set up in cabaret style. Tony Martin did some royal entertaining along with the dancing De Marcos while Emil Coleman's orchestra provided music for the show and dancing.

ADDITION to the glamour of the elegant affair after the coronation OF COURSE the guests were not to be outdone by the lovely
