Villagers Weekend Activities Reported by New Columnist

Bloomfield Village has a new columnist. She is Mrs. James Daniel Nicholls, 135 Overhill road, Bloomfield Village resident for over a year.

Mother of two boys, Daniel, 12, a Boy Scout, and Robert, 4, Peg Nicholls is active in the Junior Symphony society and the Christ Child society. Her husband is connected with automotive materials in the Fisher building Detroit. We on The Eccentric welcome Mrs. Nicholls and the Bloomfield Village news.

There was a much exodus from Bloomfield Village to attend the football game between University of Michigan and Ohio State at West Point.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Blunt and family of Broadway Boulevard were among those entertaining for the football weekend.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. John Lewis and children, Mary and John, of London, Ont. Mrs. Lewis had been looking forward to her introduction to American Rugby. Mrs. Blunt reports she was not disappointed and thoroughly enjoyed it.

The Bob Cronins of Half Moon road had as their guests over last weekend the Thomas Browns of Cleveland, Ohio. The two couples attended the Army-Michigan game after which the Cronins gave a dinner party in their guests' honor. In the party were the Richard Russ and the William E. Millers.

Mr. and Mrs. John String of Overhill road attended the Damon S. Gills' football party Saturday. They were among the many guests who branched at Oakland Hills Country club were whisked out to the game in Ann Arbor and returned on evening of dancing at the club.

Robert Watt entertained the first board meeting of the Birmingham Garden club. Mrs. William McCallum assisted Mrs. Watt as co-hostess.

Mrs. Edward Adams, Jr. of Tibury has just returned from visiting relatives in Brattleboro, Vt. and New York City, N. Y. Lt. Col. James Nicholls, Air Force Reserve, of Overhill road attended the National Resources conference held during the last two weeks at the Rackham building in Detroit.

PTA MEETING
The first PTA meeting of the fall season was held Monday night at Bloomfield Village school. Principal speaker was Dr. Frederick Jones of Birmingham who spoke on the need of "Parent Participation." Refreshments were served by sixth grade mothers.

Dr. and Mrs. L. A. Kilpatrick traveled from Grand Rapids last week to visit their son and daughter-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kilpatrick and son Bobby of Hupp Cross road but special attraction was their first meeting with two-month-old grandson, Randy.

NEW ARRIVAL
A brand new villager is Edward Whittier Heller III born Sept. 14. Proud parents are Mr. and Mrs. Edward Heller of Half Moon drive.

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Oldberg of Puritan entertained at cocktails prior to the Salliers' banquet at Orchard Lake last Saturday evening.

Many villagers attended the Birmingham Dance club held at Bonnie Brook Country club last Friday night. The Harney Hannons of Ardmore, the Bruce Browns of Overhill road along with the Richard Allmens and the Tod Foley all had dinner at Forest Lake Country club before the dance.

On Wednesday Oct. 5 Mrs. Darmstadter of Cranbrook road was hostess for the annual meeting of the district Nursing Society. The S. Gills' football party Saturday was a branch of the Community Fund and opened a summer camp at Waterford.

Mr. Jerome St. John of Los Angeles, Calif. was the weekend houseguest of Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Gillen of Chestnut Circle. She is Mrs. Gillen's cousin, Mrs. St. John has been visiting her son and family, Charles Blunt, who lives on Vinewood in Birmingham.

When Mr. and Mrs. Gillen visited Mexico City some time ago, they were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Sebastian Aquinaga, affiliated with Ford Motor Co. in Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Aquinaga are now in Detroit at the Park Shelton for a month. Mr. and Mrs. Gillen entertained them, the men at golf and the ladies at lunch. Although neither of the ladies spoke each other's language, they found common denominator, French, and managed a make-shift conversation.
