

Television Assn. Comes Out Against Compulsory PTA

A Story for Men Only

What man has not, at some time or other during his motoring experience, been left in a fit of frustration behind some slow-moving vehicle piloted by a woman who is more interested upon her conversation than upon her driving?

A Rub-Down for ... A Skunk?

SOUTHFIELD — When the Southfield township board reviewed the bills at the monthly meeting Tuesday night, the last item of business was a letter from a woman who had written to the township board asking for a skunk rub-down.

To Study 2 Governmental Alternatives

FRANKLIN — President Harold A. Roseberry will appoint a citizens' committee to study two governmental alternatives.

Hospital Releases 2 of 5 Injured In Franklin Crash

FRANKLIN — John Moani, 3024 Woodside court and Russell Fagerlie, Walley Lake, two of the people seriously injured in a two-car crash Oct. 7 at Franklin road and Woodside intersection have been released from the hospital, officials revealed Tuesday night.

Resuscitator Saves Life of 5'11 Man

SOUTHFIELD — Clarence Armstrong, 71, 2546 West 12 Mile road, was resuscitated after Monday morning being brought to the township fire department.

Birmingham, Township, Residents Cooperate to Improve W. 14 Mile

VALLEY WOODS — Birmingham city commission Monday night agreed to cooperate with residents of Valley Woods subdivision and Oakland County road commission to improve 14 Mile road between Cranbrook and Lahser.

Community Ass'n Elects Officers

FRANKLIN — Newly elected officers of the Franklin Community Association to serve for the organization's new fiscal year are Len Madge, president; Oliver Garwood, secretary; James Barker, treasurer.

CALENDAR

- WALNUT LAKE WREOC association lunch, 10 a.m. at home of Mrs. M. J. Murray, Meadow Lake road, 1:30 p.m. at home of Mrs. Daney Lathrup, school, 1:30 p.m.

Greenfield-Beverly To Fight It

SOUTHFIELD — A large subdivision in the northeast corner of the township Wednesday night publicly announced its plans to fight the incorporation of the township.

Pears and Plans Are Plentiful

Southfield School Board Secretary Marc Robinson called the meeting room Monday night carrying such a big, bulky briefcase that board members thought there was a big night's work ahead of them.

PTA Chairmen, Room Mothers Are Announced

LATHRUP — New PTA room mothers and chairmen who will lead Lathrup school children and their parents were named last week.

WHO DOES THE WORK during and after election hours?

The election board, of course, composed of housewives who volunteer for this civic duty. Watching election workers tally the votes which gave village status to Bingham Farms is Floyd W. Eaton (left), William H. Leckie and Wayne E. Lindow.

Dance Club Party Set for October 15

WEST BEVERLY — Riverside Dance club will hold its first party of the season on Saturday, Oct. 15, at Birmingham Country club, 15 at Birmingham Country club.

Board Speeds Up Building Program

Plans were discussed Monday by the Southfield board of education to speed up the much-needed building program of the school district under the recent bond issue.

Council To Play Waiting Game

LATHRUP — Councilmen have decided to wait to see the outcome of the Southfield Charter vote, Dec. 12, before they hire an engineering firm to survey a possible route for a sanitary sewer from the city to Detroit's system.

Safety Is Topic Of PTA Area Council Meeting

SOUTHFIELD — The PTA and all parents need to teach and supervise their children on road safety and every local PTA should have a program a year devoted to safety.

Southfield Teachers In Regional Meeting

SOUTHFIELD — Two Southfield teachers, Pierce McLeod, and Helene Eastman, will participate in a regional meeting of the Michigan Educational Association, being held Oct. 17 and 18.

W. B'ld LWW Holds Membership Meeting

WEST BLOOMFIELD — League of Women Voters is inviting all interested women to attend a meeting Tuesday, Oct. 18, at the Southfield township hall on Orchard Lake road, just south of Long Lake road.

REZONING ASKED FOR CLINIC, RESTAURANT

SOUTHFIELD — Request for rezoning two areas in the township were forwarded to the planning and zoning bodies by the Southfield board Tuesday night.

INSIDE THE ECCENTRIC

- Photo Page Section 4, Page 1
School Page Section 1
Church Section 4, Page 6
Society Section 2, Page 1
Walnut Lake Scout May Win European Trip

WHO DOES THE WORK during and after election hours? The election board, of course, composed of housewives who volunteer for this civic duty. Watching election workers tally the votes which gave village status to Bingham Farms is Floyd W. Eaton (left), William H. Leckie and Wayne E. Lindow.

Valley Woods To Hold Special Vote Registration

Realizing the importance of the forthcoming Southfield charter vote, residents of Southfield Valley Woods area have asked Fannie Adams, Southfield township clerk, to hold a special registration for residents of the area.

Westchester Village Plans Gala Event Halloween Night

"The Gobins will catch if ya don't watch out," Westchester Village is now preparing for a Halloween party to take place Friday, Oct. 15, at the Westchester Inn, 630 p.m.

City Manager Talks To S'ld Optimists

SOUTHFIELD — Harold Schomberg, city manager for Oak Park for the past 4 1/2 years, will speak before members of the Southfield Optimist club, Oct. 20, at Franklin Inn, 6:30 p.m.

Say More Turnpike Facts Forthcoming At Public Meeting

New information regarding toll roads is expected to be disclosed at a public meeting Monday, Oct. 17, by Robert VanderKooft, president of the Citizens Protective Assn. of Michigan, a group opposed to toll road construction in the state.

Kiwanians to Elect

SOUTHFIELD — Election of officers for Southfield Kiwanis will take place at the Oct. 19 meeting of the club. A nominating committee composed of past presidents Wes Muir, Paul Bowman, Warren Reid, Dick Klingner and Bill Taylor will present the following slate of officers for 1956:

We Heard It Said By:

BILL HARRIS, road program chairman, reported that the road program has been approved in effect.

My Neighbor

"Hello, Mr. Rooter... How about a guaranteed annual rainfall for us farmers?"

THE BOARD

THE BOARD passed the request for study to the township planning commission.

THE TOWNSHIP

THE TOWNSHIP planning commission has recommended that the township board decide to table the matter for further study.

THE ROAD

THE ROAD program received the township board's approval Tuesday night.

THE CHARTER

THE CHARTER vote is scheduled for December 12, 1956.