Newcomer Raises Orchids as Hobby

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Glass decided to move after living 35 years in Highland Park. Wanting to get out in the open spaces, they motored around the suburbs of Detroit and found our East Beverly. They liked it so well they purchased a house at 17311 Locherlie.

According to Mrs. Glass it is "home" already except that Mr. Glass misses his hobby—growing orchids. He now has them at a greenhouse until he can build his own and can once more give all of the free hours to their growth.

They have two married daughters, Mrs. W. M. Cosgrove and Mrs. R. M. Dunn and two grandsons, Bobbie Cosgrove and Douglas Dunn. Mrs. Glass enjoys hostess to church activities at the North congregational church. Glass is with the Seecoy Mobile Oil Co.

Most members of the Riverside Dancing club are looking forward to the first fall dance this Saturday at the Birmingham Country club. Called the "Ball Call Romp," the music will be furnished by Freddie Paxton's orchestra. Mr. and Mrs. Bill Barke have invited Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Campion, Mr. and Mrs. Ken Hollister and Mr. and Mrs. George Prang to stop by at their home on Locherie for cocktails preceding the dance.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

There was lots of excitement on Beechwood Saturday afternoon at the Martin Otto residence. Bobbie celebrated his fifth birthday with the help of all of his little playmates.
