Forty Area Workers Ready For Annual Torch Drive

West Beverly workers are well started on the preparation for the annual Torch Drive of Oct. 18 under the direction of chairman Mrs. Charles Vogel and her co-workers.

This committee consists of Mrs. Richard Maurer, Mrs. Peter Decker, Mrs. Robert Allison, and Mrs. Paul Shine. There will be 40 workers with ten under each head.

Mrs. Peter Decker, assisted by Mrs. Maurer gave a coffee Friday, Oct. 7 for workers and at that time plans were made and instructions given.

Mrs. J. Fraser Cooks, who works with the UP in Birmingham and is divisional chairman, will be present at these various meetings to explain the line of work. The final get-together before the official opening of the campaign will be the kick-off luncheon at 2 Brooklynn Oct. 17.

Mr. and Mrs. John Russell of 14 Mile road returned last week from a flying trip. Leaving here Saturday, Oct. 1, by plane, they landed in California, spent three days in present as well as godparents. Janet O'Leary and Marion Peterson. Billy completes a trio, his brothers being Joey, three years old and Gregg, one and a half.

Relaxing from the regular routine of the class room, a group of teachers from Southfield high enjoyed an evening at the home of one of their fellow instructors, Barbara Wesley on Devonshire, Thursday, Oct. 6 was the date and a barbecue supper was served on the Wesley lawn.

BLOCK HOSTESSES
The first meeting of the Beverly Hill block hostesses was held Tuesday, Oct. 11 at the home of Mrs. John Mitchell on Kimross. The afternoon was devoted principally to the business of getting organized for the coming year.

The John Mitchells have been entertaining relatives, Mr. and Mrs. D. Marcoss of Los Angeles. Having just completed a trip in which they spent two months touring Europe by car, they took this opportunity of stopping off in Birmingham on their way home to the east coast. Mrs. Marcoss is Mr. Mitchell's sister.

NEW RESIDENTS

Mr. and Mrs. George Asbury of Fairway drive moved from South Rosedale Park and have been in Beverly one month. Mr. Asbury is connected with Michigan Bell Telephone Co.
