

The Birdie Says:

FM DE yellow bird from Texas, and ah'm celebratin' with wim a la-mud, cause I picked nine out of nine.
Dum, Dum, De—Dah. Yesiree, picked nine winners last week. Gave de Maples 20 points and dey got dat many.

FIGURED some of de scores would be higher dan dey were but all de yez and mud key down some of de scoring.
Troy and Bloomfield Hills got only de six points dey was given, and dos whittle Boimingham Tigurs won another game like we taught.

DE RECURD now looks purty good with 25 right and three wrong. How 'bout dat?
But now de games are gettin' tuffer so I gotta get me krystal ball.

Here's what it sez:
BOIMINGHAM 19—Walled Lake 6—Can't stop now Jays!
SOUTHFIELD 19—Walled Lake 6—Can't stop now Jays!
FRASER 27—BLOOM. HILLS 6—Barons are stuck on six.
CRANBROOK 20—Western Reserve 12—One for Homecoming
Fitzgerald 18—TROY 9—No love, no nuthin'.
LITTLE TIGURS 13—E. Detroit 6—Dis could be a toughie
Boston College 21—U of D 7—Clawed by de Eagles
Notur Dame 21—MICHIGUN STATE 7—Cross de Irish goal once.
MISHIGAN 33—Notwestern 0—Wolves have stuffed Wildcat.

Troy Falls to Roseville 13-6 Birmingham Tennis Club Holds Meeting

In the battle of the all-beaters, giving Roseville possession on the Troy went down to its fourth straight loss of the season in bowing to Roseville 13-6, in an Oakland "B" game.
The Colts guffed Roseville with the opening touchdown by fumbling on their own 12 yard line from where the Grant school scored in four plays.

TROY controlled the ball for the remainder of the half and knotted the count in the second period when Dick Kelley grabbed Ray Podulka's pass for a 17 yard tally.
In the fourth period, Troy's line held on the 12 yard stripe, but a fourth down punt was dropped.

The Quarterly meeting of the Board of Governors of the Birmingham Tennis club was held last Friday at the home of President-elect Francis P. Henderson, 1708 Bradford.
Present along with retiring president Edward L. Dingley, were board members Russell H. Frantz, 10990 Buckingham; Mrs. Albert Holmes, 3588 Shallowbrook; Bloomfield Hills; John J. Markowski, 4103 Grandview; Ray C. Sackett, 270 Harrow; Akvin W. Sasa, 25375 Waycross; and Leon Bramley, Brookside Drive, Bloomfield Hills.

"WE ARE weak in the middle of the line offensively," said coach Bob Nyquist, who was pleased with the factor that "the boys never quit."
The punting has hurt Troy this season, with each opponent capitalizing on a punt break in every game.

clubs in the Detroit Metropolitan area.
IT WAS also discussed to renew the club's Men's singles tourney in competition for the A. S. Hall trophy, and the Women's singles tourney for the Millard trophy.

Player Hurt; Crane Booters Defeat Sarnia

Playing on a muddy and puddled field, Cranbrook booters defeated a strong Sarnia Soccer squad 2-0 last Friday with second and fourth period goals by Bruce McEau and Jim Maas.
It was the second goal for Maas this season and gave Cranbrook a 2-1 record before getting into league play against Western Reserve Saturday morning on the team.

back. Dale Fruman and John Newcomb shined on defense.
Newcomb however suffered an injury when he was struck in the head by the knee of a Sarnia player. He stayed overnight in the Sarnia hospital under observation. He returned home the next-day.
Sarnia field has an unusual team league play against Western Reserve Saturday morning on the team.

CRANBROOK carried the play Don Twyman and Owen Fett in the first two periods with full-backs Dale Fruman and John Newcomb shining on defense.
