Many Area Residents Drawn To U of M Football Games

Almost everyone who left town last weekend headed for Ann Arbor and the U of M-Army game: Some stayed on to enjoy the many parties given in and around Ann Arbor and others dashed back here to make plans for the evening.

The Sherrill Simpsons of Brady drive and Mr. and Mrs. Norman R. Barnes of Lennox road, Bloomfield township, came back from the game in time to go in to see Saturday night's performance of the Theatre Guild's production, "Ami- versary Waltz," at the Cass.

Dr. and Mrs. Cecil Conrad of East Square Lake road, together with Dr. and Mrs. Harold Ott and Dr. and Mrs. Harold Longyear and Mr. and Mrs. J. Graham Curvey of Bloomfield village, were at the game. Sunday the group met at the Conrad for brunch.

This weekend, Dr. and Mrs. Conrad will be back in Ann Arbor. They have invited Dr. and Mrs. Willis Ulrich to join them for luncheon and the game followed by the traditional "At Home" at the Richard J. Shermans on Lansdowne road, Ann Arbor. Dr. Conrad is an avid football fan, recalling his years at the University when he played football.

Mr. and Mrs. James Morgan Smith of Beach road and their mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Percival G. Bixby of Derby, N. Y., attended the game. Sunday, the foursome were among guests at the cocktail party at the Sidney Oldberg of Bloomfield Village hosted preceding the Sailor's banquet at Orchard Lake Country club. The eight college regatta was held at the Club this weekend. The Smiths managed to get over to the Hunt club for a glimpse of the horse show Sunday.

The F. M. Warners of Greentree, Bloomfield township, went from the game to the annual cocktail dinner and dancing party at the Harry Klingers of Shadford road, Ann Arbor. Among the 30 guests at their annual October party were Mr. and Mrs. Fred E. Booth, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Fitzgerald, Mr. and Mrs. George Dix, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Fred E. Wolf, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Gordon and Mr. and Mrs. Newton Skillman, all from here.

While it was football on Saturday for the Warners, Tuesday they were in their bathing suits for the first dip in their new pool. Most people have given up swimming by now but all summer the Warners were waiting for this day and when the sun shone, many friends dropped by.

The pool selected for completion only in the summer was held up when the engineers found five springs at the base of the excavation. Cool spring water feeds the pool now and a lawn sprinkling system was devised from drainage, so the Warners feel it was all worth the waiting.

PRIZE POODLES

Have you met Dr. and Mrs. William F. Squires, the couple living on Charnwood drive? Dr. Squires, a graduate of the University of Michigan dental school, has his office in Birmingham. Mrs. Squires attended the University of Illinois. They are active members in the Congressional church of Birmingham and number among their hobbies their French Poodles, apricot standard, Beau Brummel and black miniature, Nanette.

To round out the household, there is in addition to Beau Brum-

'Something Borrowed' Worn With Gown of Italian Silk

Glen L. Greenleaf claimed Eleanor Helen Harris as his bride Saturday in a double-ring ceremony at Our Shepherd Lutheran church. The Rev. H. G. Alward read the 7-ock-ck rites.

For something borrowed, the bride wore the veil of her future cousin, Mrs. Celestine Johnston. The fingertip veil fell from a tiara of pearls and she carried white carnations and roses. Her single strand of pearls was a gift of the groom.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald G. Harris, 1848 Humphrey, are the parents of the bride. Glen is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Morris H. Greenleaf of Clawson.

BEVERLY Harris was her sister's maid of honor in a four length dress of golden brown silk. She wore a matching
