

THE CONCERTMEN will open the season with their Oct. 22 program at the Royal Oak high school. Three other outstanding programs are scheduled this year.

Community Concerts Open Season Oct. 22

The Community Concert association, now beginning its ninth year, has become an integral part of the musical life of the South Oak-land county communities," according to a group spokesman.

The first concert on Saturday, Oct. 22, is awaited by over 1,100 members who live in the 10 cities surrounding Royal Oak, where the concerts are held in the high school auditorium.

For the first of four outstanding programs this season, the Association presents "The Concertmen and Edmond Karlrud."

This outstanding new male ensemble, composed of eight singers and accompanist, joins Edmond Karlrud in a program of art songs, operatic arias, operetta excerpts, folk songs and spirituals designed to please all musical tastes.

THE CONCERTMEN offer the precision and smoothness of a small ensemble and at the same time are capable of presenting many of the great vocal masterpieces. Each man is a soloist in his own right with an extensive professional background in the concert, radio and television fields.

Although still in his twenties, Edmond Karlrud, baritone, has gained recognition in television, radio, concert and oratorio.

Since graduating from the University of Minnesota and Juillard Music school, he has compiled a record of professional concert appearances which is probably unequalled by any American singer of similar age.
