SOUPY SALES

Soupy Sales To Highlight Pierce Fair

Soupy Sales will star alone in Pierce School's PTA Fair, but activities will include a school full of games, sales booths, and food arrangements.

Set for Oct. 22, the Friday activities start at 1 p.m. with the TV comedian's performances at 6, 6:45, 7:30 and 8:15 p.m. in the auditorium.

Closing of the fair, planned primarily for children with surplus tickets to Soupy's show available to adults at the auditorium, is about 10 p.m.

SOUPY IS A North Carolinian who studied journalism in Maryland, then worked on a radio station in Huntington, W. Va., radio station meanwhile. After Navy and college he became a Huntington disc jockey, and switched later to television in Cincinnati. After a stint in Cleveland, he came to Detroit and WXYZ for "12:00 Comics".

Plans by Russ Heager, president, Mike Quinn, factory vice president, and Mrs. Harry Hodge, Jr., mother-vice president, and fair chairman, call for each room having some booth or sale.

WHITE ELEPHANTS, baked goods, canned goods, used comics and records, and glass pictures will be on sale. Children can play at fishing or climbing cherry trees for small purchases. Eight kiddies at a time can ride in an auto-circle.

Dinner will be served buffet style, with the self-serve aimed at avoiding long lines known previously at such fairs. A snack bar is also planned.

AAUW Book Sale Opens Next Week; Preview Sunday

Opening Monday, Oct. 17 at 8 a.m. in the Detroit Edison building, the 25th annual AAUW used-book sale will continue through the week to noon, Saturday, Oct. 22. Hours will be 8 a.m. to 9 p.m. on Monday and Friday, 8 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, and 8 a.m. to noon on Saturday, according to Mrs. J. K. Hain who, with Mrs. G. C. Joynt, is directing the 65 member-saleswomen.

For the seventh year, books for 30 area organization libraries will be paid for by the "Anonymous Donor," said Mrs. S. J. Bakas, general chairman.

In a letter to Mrs. Bakas, the donor wrote:

"I AM very happy to continue to pay for the books supplied by you to the various libraries in this area. All who have previously participated in this sale are welcome to do so again."

Representatives of these groups will make their selections Sunday afternoon from 2 to 5 p.m. AAUW members and their families will preview the books during this same period.

In addition to Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills schools, invitations have been sent to Holy Name, Moonfield Village, Kingswood, Clawson, Beverly, Poplarville, Waldnut Lake and Baker junior high schools; Frankie school and Community Library; Baldwin, Waterford township, and Berkeley public libraries; St. Joseph's hospital book cart; Pontiac; the Wahjema Home for Epileptics in Caro, Mich.; Children's home and the Baptist Children's home.

THERE WILL BE mystery novels, too, according to Mrs. J. S. Judd's committee of Mrs. T. J. LaFontaine, Mrs. Robert Yingling and Mrs. Robert Rouze.

It is never too late to make contributions, say these workers. Calls for pick-up may be made to Mrs. LaFontaine, Mrs. Yingling or Mrs. Bakas.

Sets of classics, a great variety of fiction, comic books, reference books, encyclopedias and dictionaries, hymnals, cook-books, and paper-backs will also be offered. Proceeds go to AAUW scholarships.

Birth

A daughter, Carol Jane, was born Oct. 2 to MR. AND MRS. L. IAY VAHUE of Perryton, Texas. Mrs. Vahue is the former Helen Mack of Birmingham.
