Village Children Await School Fair

Hosniety Village school children are waiting for Friday, Oct. 25, to arrive. From 5 to 6 o'clock that evening their annual school fair will take place with such attractions as a carousel and a special secret "for adults only." Each grade is busy working on projects such as the village store, bake sale, supper room and games room. Room mothers held coffee meetings recently to round up their workers. Mrs. Robert Targart, PTA president, explained at the monthly meeting that funds from this year's fair would be used to purchase an audio-visual system for the school.

Saturday Night Supper Party Honors Residents

A Saturday night supper party honored the recently returned Loy Van Nortwicks of Rouge Circle, who have been living in South Bend these past several months.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred E. Pantillon invited 26 neighbors in for the evening to welcome home the honored guests. Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Bunge, Dr. and Mrs. George D. Yatch, Mr. and Mrs. Merritt D. Elliott, Mr. and Mrs. Roland Smith of Rouge Circle, and the Smiths' houseguests from Monon, Ind., Dr. and Mrs. Kenneth L. Smith, and Mr. and Mrs. Ray C. Embury were present.

The Emburys, together with other Pine Hill residents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Seigel of Bitternut Hill, just returned from weekend-ing at Torch Lake. The Seigels de-vised to stay on for some hunting and are expected home today.

Hill and Susie Gary were off Shepack Lake last week on a hunting trip with two of their Labrador retrievers. This week find them at Harsen's Island duck hunt-ing. Haining Labrador retrievers in their own kennel out on East Square Lake road is the Garys' hobby. This fall they are out at every opportunity, even plan to do some bow and arrow hunting up North.

Mr. and Mrs. Sherrill Simpson of Breyby drive, Charnwood were hosts to a small dinner party Sat-urday night in honor of their week-end house guests from Detroit.

Charnwood's newest resident is Master Kirk Harold Kalbfleisch, who arrived Sunday, Sept. 25. Proud parents are the Harold M. Kalbfleischs of 6419 Malvern drive, and down the road at 6435 Malvern live Kirk's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold F. Kalbfleisch, who moved here earlier this year from Beaconsfield road.

On Tuesday at 8 o'clock Pem-broke School PTA will hold open house at the school. Following a brief business meeting parents will visit the class rooms, getting to know better their children's teachers and the program of teaching to be followed this semester. Alfred L. Bauman, Jr. of Ridge Circle has been nominated for PTA treasurer, according to president Robert Kirkby.

Mrs. Marvin Wood of Fox Run Drive, Bloomfield township entered members of Circle V of the Congregational Church of Bir-mingham in her home on Tuesday. Following luncheon work was com-pleted on the Sleigh Bell Fair slated for Nov. 17 at the church house.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Smith of Mary Ellen and her parents moved from Detroit this summer to their new home at Barry Drive, Bloomfield township. When school is out there will be many parties and picnics around the newly completed swimming pool, for swimming is Mary Ellen's favorite sport. Other family hobbies are piano and bridge.

Mrs. Selma's mother, Mrs. Ellen's Dad, Alfred J. Ken-

Reports from the University of Michigan state that Mary Eckfeld of East Long Lake road, a fresh-man, is living in Stockwell Hall Here sister, Florence, who is a Junior this year studying nursing is now training in the operating room. Mary is studying home economics.

Also majoring in home econom-ics, but at Hillsdale college is a newcomer to this area, Mary Ellen Kenfiek who is a sophomore, liv-ing in the Pi Beta Phi sorority house.

Welcome to Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Sax, former Huntington Woods residents who now live at 5333 Brookdale Mr. Sax, a graduate of the University of Wisconsin, is vice president of the American Bus company. Mrs. Sax, originally a Chicago girl, is a graduate of Northwestern. Their favorite sports are flying and skiing.

Out for the homecoming game at Ann Arbor last weekend were the Roger Blackwood of Charn-wood drive and the Albert Wol-frams of Detroit. Mrs. Walfraan is Mr. Blackwood's sister, both grad-uates of the University of Mich-igan. Following the game the four-some went over to Marshall, stay-ing at Schuyler Inn, and returned home Sunday.
