

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Tie This One For Consideration—

Closed the office early last Saturday to go after presents with Pops Foster. I used fewer shells than the old gentleman and took home more birds—but not because I did better shooting.

I'd borrowed a dog for the occasion. Pops took along Blue, his ancient pointer. Several times I noticed Pops walk up to a clump of bushes Blue had pointed at and fire into the air—though he hadn't flushed a single bird.

Naturally, I wanted to know why. "Well," he said sheepishly, "I've been hunting with that dog for 11 seasons. His nose isn't much help any more—but I'd rather waste a shell than let him know."

From where I sit, Pops always shows consideration for people. For instance, this is a small thing, but he puts a bottle of beer on ice for me when I visit him—though he never takes anything but coffee himself. Even if he doesn't agree with me on a matter of personal choice (which is his right) he'd rather not make a "point" of letting me know.

THE CONTINENTAL CUFF TURNS UP AS ANOTHER FASHION FIRST FOR

Lebow

COUNTRY SQUIRE

The station wagon and the country home aren't the only links between town and country. Country Squire, Lebow's versatile Shetland-type worsted fabric, makes a fine meeting point for rural ease and the press of city business. Speaking of press, Country Squire doesn't need it so often. The fabric holds up well, and Lebow's 87 hand tailoring operations impart body to the suit. A new fashion note is the distinguished continental cuff.

New Residents of Area Introduced and Welcomed

Welcome to Mr. and Mrs. Alvie L. Smith and their two children Randy, 4½, and Diane, 11 months, who are living at 1682 Graefield road.

Smith is associated with the press, radio and television section, public relations department of General Motors. He received his BA and master's degree from the University of Wisconsin.

Prior to coming to Birmingham the Smiths resided in Lansing for 7½ years where he was on the public relations staff at Michigan State University and for the past two years was centennial director. Mrs. Smith also attended the University of Wisconsin where she was a member of Alpha Phi Delta.

They are very impressed and high in their praise of The Birmingham Eccentric. Their immediate interest in the local newspaper is obvious since, in addition to Mr. Smith's background, they both were formerly with the Wisconsin State Journal, a Madison daily newspaper.

Former residents of Park Forest, Ill., now living at 1851 Graefield road are Mr. and Mrs. Harland W. Oates. Mr. Oates, sales representative for the Wyman-Gordon Co., is a graduate of Princeton University where he was a member of the Dial Lodge club and also attended Illinois Tech. He is a golfer.

Mrs. Oates is a graduate of UCLA and is very interested in oil painting. The Oates have two children Susan, 4, and David, 9 months.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Allen Smith are now residing at 1506 Graefield road with their daughter one-year-old Marcia. The Smiths came to Birmingham from Colorado Springs, Colo., Mr. Smith being a native of that city. He is assistant merchandising manager of the Pure Pak division of Excelsior Corp. They are avid skiers and are looking forward to skiing in Northern Michigan this winter.

Mrs. William D. Hart of Graefield court will have as her guests for the Fisher Town Hall featuring Constance Bennett Wednesday, Oct. 26. Mrs. Herbert Schott and Mr.

Zonta Approves Date Change for Meeting; Hears Talk on Dolls

Dolls, the history of them and distinguishing marks for which every collector searches were explained to Birmingham-Blossfield Hills Zonta club members by their hostess when they met last week at the home of Mrs. Walter F. Carey, Middlefield road.

Two meeting date changes were approved at the business meeting. The Thursday room meeting has been changed, permanently, to Tuesday noon. The regularly scheduled Nov. 8 meeting has been postponed one week.

Club President, Katherine Flint, will give her report on the Zonta International convention in Ohio and will be given then.

Society deadline is 3 p.m. each Tuesday.

Charles Cannon of Howell. A celebrity luncheon will follow at the chautauque at which time Mrs. Hart and her guests will be seated at the speakers' table.

TROYTON MANOR

At a general meeting of the Troyton Manor Home Owners association held Oct. 10 at Pembroke school the following officers were appointed: Jack Clark, president; Ray McParrin, vice president; Walter Ekberg, treasurer; Peter Doer, secretary; Charles Hooker, chairman of the nominating committee; Donald Martin, chairman of the internal relations committee. The board of directors will be comprised of the appointed officers.

A meeting of the board of directors was held Sunday evening at the Clark home for the purpose of appointing chairman for the various standing committees of the association. This evening, Oct. 20, all officers and committee chairmen will hold their first meeting at the home of Peter Doer to organize plans for the future operation of the association.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted E. Young of Troyton Manor entertained several of their friends on Saturday evening in honor of their weekend guest Shabhet Walz of Greenwich, Conn.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Case entertained Mr. and Mrs. David Robertson of Walnut Lake, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Martell of Rosal Oak and Mr. and Mrs. John Sehnler of Detroit at their home on Witherbee, Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Fly of Graefield road spent the weekend hunting, fishing for rainbows, and getting together with neighboring friends at their cottage near Wellston in northern Michigan.

We Heard It Said By: School Flag Given At Monday Assembly

PAUL CARTER, assistant superintendent, Birmingham schools. We are fortunate in having the student teacher program in our school system. Regular teachers are distinguished by the presence of student teachers and the instruction program is enhanced and enriched by many activities when student teachers can direct well. The whole program is mutually beneficial.

Two assembly programs at Pembroke school Tuesday saw the presentation of the school flag in blue and gold, Pembroke colors.

Bob Holliday designed the flag in a contest sponsored last year by the Student Council. The 24 by 36 inch banner has been painted on cloth by Mrs. Marian Solber, assistant professor at Wayne university.
