Mystery Thriller Now at Will-O-Way

"Dial M for Murder" opens the stock company and featuring Har-fall-winter season for Will-O-Way by Goldstein and Maggie O'Hara. Playhouse, presented by a senior Michael Keith, Russell Wallace

Wednesday through Friday through Oct. 29 are performance dates. Tickets may be ordered at the Playhouse office, West Long Lake road.

WITCH shows her broom, on which she'll fly to Quarton Fair, to chairman Mrs. John Adamson and Mrs. John Fauver. She's Mrs. Colin John in disguise.

Use Halloween Theme For Quarton PTA Fair

Halloween theme of the Quarton PTA Annual Fair will include a haunted house, complete with witch, and even the sale of pumpkins. The event is scheduled for Friday, Oct. 28, from 3:30 to 8:30 p.m.

One farmer's entire crop of pumpkins has been purchased by Mrs. Stuart Lottner, who says she'll be able to keep the prices low. Mrs. John P. Emmett and Mrs. Franklin Blum invited the witch, who is being enacted by Mrs. Walter H. Riley. Mrs. Frederick Mattiari, Jr. and Mrs. Richard H. Wallace have been collecting white elephants, and advise an early trip to their booth. Baked goods are under the charge of Mrs. Thomas Fleming and Mrs. Jules Gall.

THE CHILDREN will be able to buy their tickets at the opening from Mrs. Gordon Grant and Mrs. Robert Hall and spend them for such things as kiddie rides which are being handled by Mrs. James M. Risdon and Mrs. Richard Strickland. Mrs. Howard Linder and Mrs. Robert Heckmann, Jr., will conduct Halloween games, and Mrs. Edward Kurth and Mrs. Richard Morrison have bedecked the sugar plum tree.

Mrs. William McNaughton and Mrs. Donald Brooker will sell candy and popcorn for the children to eat in the movies arranged by Mrs. William Lovell and Mrs. Philip Evisstret. Balloons will be sold by Mrs. Thomas King and Mrs. David Burton. To add to the fun making, little tikes will be able to have their faces made up by Mrs. Fred Mcracken and Mrs. William Burgum.

MRS. ARTHUR (Mrs. J. and Mrs. F. Rhodes) will be on hand to check for the parents the purchases they have made in the booth of Mrs. Robert Hubbard and Mrs. Clem Jensen who will be selling personalized gifts, and the new toys they have bought from Mrs. J. W. Haisdell and Mrs. Hayes. The whole family can eat at the school. Menus have been planned by Mrs. Robert Thompson, Mrs. Henry Jackson, Mrs. O. C. Beardsley, Mrs. Robert Emory, Mrs. John Lorimer and Mrs. Richard Hanson.

Book Sale Figures Ahead of Last Year

AAUW book sale chairman, Mrs. E. J. Conway, said sales this year are running considerably ahead of last year's figures, with Sunday and Monday receipts totaling $1,554.96. During the Sunday preview 27 groups selected 1,670 books, 218 magazines and 112 records. The call for these are picked up again today by a resident who insists that he remain anonymous.

UN Expert Talks To Beverly PTA

Mrs. Philip Gentile, Detroit, who has just returned from United Nations sessions and who was a UNESCO delegate, will speak at the Beverly School Parent Teacher association meeting at 8 p.m. Tuesday in the school's multipurpose room.

Mrs. Gentile's talk, tying in with the year's theme for the PTA, "To educate our children we educate our parents," will give first hand information on vital UN decisions and activities, relating them to the individual.

In January, 1954, Mrs. Gentile won a fellowship from the Ford Foundation to study at the United Nations.
