

MR. AND MRS. RAY F. WORTHLEY

Worthley-Aughy Vows Spoken in Candlelight

Upon their return from a honeymoon in Northern Michigan, Mr. and Mrs. Ray F. Worthley will make their home at 2304 1/2 Hazelwood, Ross Park, Ray of Eastland road and the former Ruth Elizabeth Aughy solemnized their vows at a double-ring ceremony at the Congregational church in Birmingham. The candlelight service was performed by Rev. Robert Dewey last Saturday at 8 p.m.

White net with fitted bodice and lace over satin was used for the gown, styled with long sleeves and adjustable collar. Trimmed with seed pearls and West-cent sequins. A net on with seed pearl trim skirted the finger-length veil of silk illusion. A cascading arrangement of white roses, carnations and red was carried by the bride.

Honor attendants, Honor Aughy, sister of the bride, wore a princess dress of hip taffeta with satin headpiece to match. She carried a nosegay of pink carnations and roses. Miss Aughy, attends the University at Rose-Hulman, Ohio, and came home for the occasion.

On the etiquette side, Heitman acted as best man and the guests were seated by Deland Worthingley, Jr. and Alvin Worthingley. Before departing on their trip, the bride donned a blue wool-silk suit with black accessories. Her corsage was white roses and carnations.

MRS. HUGH Aughy, mother of the bride, wore blue silk organza with pink accessories. The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. L. L. and Worthley, wore gray and over pink taffeta and pink accessories. Out of town guests included Rev. and Mrs. Louis T. Bowers of Ashville, N. C., who were attending their honeymoon; Mrs. A. Bowers and daughter, Judy, of Brownall, Pa.; Mr. Henry Aughy, Jr. and son from Washington, Del.; Mrs. Henry Aughy III, from Ann Arbor, Mich.; and a brother of Upper Darby, Pa. Mrs. Bill Von Margaret, from St. Louis, Mo., and Mrs. Walter E. Bond of Washington, D. C.; David Scholtz from Hamilton, Ohio; and Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Ehos, Jr. of Flint, Michigan.

In Queen's Court At MSU Homecoming

Two Birmingham girls, among the five finalists for the title of Homecoming Queen at Michigan State, are serving this week in the Queen's Court.

Barbara Cope, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Cope, 19030 Warwick, and Helen M. Smith, ward of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Maynard, 827 Colonial Court, will attend "her majesty" when homecoming ceremonies reach their climax Saturday.

Events will include the parade, football game, banquet and homecoming dance.

Approach $100,000 Goal in One Week

St. Columban R. C. church building fund campaign, with a minimum need of $100,000, reached $70,000 after only one week of general visitation to parishioners. The total was announced by Rev. Thomas M. Kenny, pastor and honorary chairman of the drive.

The campaign is being conducted to help reduce the parish debt so construction of a new parochial school may be undertaken.

Robert Tamm, general chairman, said 100 workers, under the leadership of John Duffy, team captain chairman, will visit the remaining members of the parish.

In group competition, Team 4, captained by John Dolan and Norman Moore, reported $5,500 in gifts; Team 10, led by Pete Simler and Edward Boudreau were a close second, reporting $5,225.

Individual leaders were John Chisara and Louis Kastely of Team 4.
