There romes to most of us, from time to time, inner "glimpses" of the loft-ingaffer, these are times when in reality and is sort of attuned to the Inflaire, and one's very best impulses strive for expression. Sustain these moments.

Learn How to Teach

MRS. WILLIAM ROSS, 32461 Beaconsfield waves goodbye as practice teacher, Marge Rinehart from Webster Groves Mo., leaves for Beverly school. Practice teachers came to Birmingham before school opened, went through same procedures as regular teachers in finding living quarters. Mrs. Ross has opened her home to two practice teachers. She sail she wanted to do for these girls what some mother did for her daughter, Barbara, practice teacher last year at Ohio Weslyan.

26 Practice Teachers in Schools Here

Just as the medical profes

Just as the medical profes-sion has its interns, brursing its student nurses, so has the teaching profession its tryfin-ess—practice teachers. Birmingham school district has been selected by Michigan State University as one of four centers in Michigan for its student teacher program. Here since the school year began are 26 practice teach-began are 26 practice teachers. Along with teaching each school day under supervision of the regular classroom teacher, practice/teachers are living full time in the com-munity, engaging in commugity activities, and assuming civic responsibilities related to education

MARCIA SMITH, practice teacher in Adams school second grade, gets actual teaching experience under the watchful supervision of regular classroom teacher, Mrs. Carl Sutfin (left). Birmingham school system has a fine opportunity and first choice in hiring new and able teachers to be come "regulars" on the teaching staff. All practice teachers are college seniors who have completed most of their college professional courses before being assigned to pracfessional courses before being assigned to practice. January 12-13 fessional courses befor being assigned to prac-tice teaching.
