

Mission Programs for 3 Churches

Presbyterian Women List Guest Speakers

Five speakers have been engaged for the "Social Agencies of City and County at Work for Christ" program the First Presbyterian church women's association is sponsoring on Oct. 26.

The panel-type program will be moderated by Homer Johnson, Miss Ora L. Hinkley, with Mrs. Margaret Snow, J. Leahy and Jack P. White on the panel.

Mrs. Johnson, an elder of the Woodward Avenue Presbyterian church, was the only woman to speak on the general assembly's nomination committee.

MISS HINCKLEY, Oakland county bureau of social aid supervisor, has a broad background in the field including work at a state school and service in Kalamazoo, Oshtemo, Westford, Muskegon and Washtenaw counties before coming here.

Mrs. Snow, chief of the women's division, Detroit police, is a graduate nurse who turned to police work in 1934 after serving as recreation supervisor at the Wayne county juvenile detention home.

Irishay, director of the Delray Christian Neighborhood house in Detroit, has made several Birmingham talks on this type of work.

White, newly elected Big Brothers president for Oakland county, is news editor for WJR.

Baptists Plan Week-Long Mission Meet

A close friend and neighbor of the late Peter Marshall, and former classmate of the Rev. Emil Kuntz, D.D., First Baptist church minister, will speak at Cranford, D.D., will speak at that church next week.

He will begin a series of services on Oct. 23, continuing through Oct. 30, "A Week of Spiritual Discovery" program.

Dr. Kuntz said the speaker's topic will be "The Book We Teach," "The Sacrament We Serve," "The Cause We Esteem," "The Power We Vest," "The Trials We Face," "The Will We Share," and "The Victory We Enjoy."

SERVICES will be at 8 p.m. every evening except Saturday. A special talk will be given at Birmingham high school assembly at 8:30 a.m., Tuesday.

The Rev. Lester Case, associate pastor at Cranford Baptist church, Detroit, will assist Dr. Cranford, arranging musical services.

Dr. Cranford has held pastorates in eastern cities and has been with Calvary Baptist church, Washington, D. C., for 15 years.

HE HAS served in many church fields and is a well known speaker at college and church programs.

Among his most recent assignments was the two-month preaching mission for Air Force personnel in the Pacific.

Sunday and Wednesday evenings will have special fellowship services and social hours. Nursery care for small children will be provided and all services are open to the public.

Dr. Cranford will be assisted during the service by Dr. Kuntz and the Rev. F. Robert Wilkie, minister of Christian Education at the host church.

Rummage Sale Set To Follow Train

The "Do-it-yourself" fad has hit rummage sales!

Items suitable for this hobby are being stressed at the Oct. 27 sale sponsored by Christ Church Cranbrook's Women's auxiliary, from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. at the church.

The field ranges from needlework materials to furniture and metal work, with a myriad of things to choose from.

Mrs. Dwight Engstrom, auxiliary president, said the usual snack bar and checkroom service would be offered.

The sale is being co-chaired by Mrs. David Lee, and Mrs. Darbury Schmitt, with 28 members assisting.
