

Lathrup Students Busy with Activities

LATHRUP — Friday morning, Oct. 14, the sixth graders of Lathrup school and their teachers saw "Hippies" at the Michigan theater. This was in connection with the social studies unit on early Greece and Rome.

On Tuesday, Oct. 11, Lathrup school conducted a paper drive. Special thanks go to Gerry Carter and Arthur Johnston for their splendid cooperation in its success. Proceeds from it will buy equipment for the gymnasium.

Friday from 10 to 2, Lathrup's first graders went to the zoo, following a unit study of animals. Along with their sight-seeing they had ice cream and a train ride.

We Heard It Said By:

MRS. EDWARD SIMTZ, Walnut Lake area, West Bloomfield library board member: "The West Bloomfield library, 3201 Orchard Lake road, is your library, supported by your taxes. Make free use of it for reference work or pleasurable reading. The children's book section is large and valuable. If you are not a resident of West Bloomfield township, there is a membership charge of $1.00 per year."

seventh grade will go to Fort Wayne Military Museum. There they will see some of old Detroit's artillery.

Lathrup Boy Scout Troop Welcomes New Scoutmaster

Lathrup Boy Scout Troop B-14 will welcome new Scoutmaster Raymond Hancock, and new Assistant Scoutmaster Charles Negler into the Troop tonight.

They will have an opportunity to get acquainted with the new leaders when they joined the troop last Saturday afternoon and stayed overnight at the D-Bar-A camp.

Members of the troop committee and adult leadership staff met in the House-in-the-Woods last Friday evening with Lloyd Hart, neighborhood scout commissioner, and president George E. Jaquillard of the sponsoring organization, the Lathrup Township Association.

Scout Troop committee continues under the chairmanship of Donald Hanson, assisted by treasurer Robert Knighton, and secretary William Kimberly. Other committee members are Charles Herr, training; Leroy Frederick, advancement; Leo Mueller, equipment; Theodore Garrish, membership; and Robert Farrant, public relations. David Anderson has been named as institutional representative to the Township Association.

Vince Zattel will continue as explorer advisor.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerard Marquis and son Charles are moving into their new home this week. They are at Albany avenue near Mount road. The young folks have made their home with the Leonard Marquis, and Charles is a law student at U. of D.

The Clarence Gleason family celebrates birthdays in bunches this month. First of all there's Cleary who claims Oct. 3, then comes Timmy on Oct. 18, and Mrs. Gleason's mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Jacovetti, and last but not least, young Jeffrey who just turned 6 months.

Mrs. Gleason reports that she spent a recent weekend in Cleveland attending a wedding and left Cleary with the four little seasons. It turns out that father is a fine substitute and everything was in wonderful order upon her return.

The Al Sphars and young Steven, age 2, have just returned from a fall trip through Grand Rapids, Muskegon and Greenville. Combining business with pleasure, the Sphars were thrilled at the coloring of the maple trees near Greenville, and recommend the trip to autumn color seekers.

On Saturday, Oct. 8, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Kressler entertained at their home on Cambridge with a dinner party. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Macdonald, Mr. and Mrs. Burt Poe and Mr. and Mrs. David Anderson.

Pat Cogger, daughter of the Richard Coggers of Sunset, spent the weekend with friends at Ann Arbor. She took in the Michigan-Northwestern football game on Saturday, Oct. 15.

Sunday, Oct. 16, Nancy Jo Norton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dana M. Norton, Bloomfield drive, was initiated into Phi Mu Sorority at Michigan State university at East Lansing. This brought back many memories to Nancy's mother, who has just such a day in an earlier October, joined the same Phi Mu.

Former Lathrupite Sharon Bonner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. Rayburn Bonner, entertained several of her friends and former neighbors at a pajama party on Monday, Oct. 17, at her home on Mulberry drive in Green Valley. Jean Hale was co-hostess. Guests were Susie Ackles, Judy Adams, Ellen Jenks, Judy Caddell, Joan O'Brien, Mary Bush, Mary Beth McLeary and Pat Harden.
