

Barons Win First Game Since 1952

A famine of more than two years has ended at Bloomfield Hills, with the spunky Barons upsetting favored Fraser in a Suburban league game by an 18-0 shutout on Wed.

It was the first victory for the Hills since the final game of 1952, which was 18 games ago, and it touched off a happy homecoming celebration at the new Bloomfield Hills high school.

BHS Reserves Win 3 Straight Games

Ferndale and Hazel Park were added as the second and third straight victims of the Bloomfield Hills reserve football team.

Coach Tom Gordon's opening drive for the winning score in the final seconds of the game to the Ferndale reserves 13-7 on the 'Spitter field last week.

This week the Maple juniors trounced Hazel Park 39-0 in a game highlighted by five long scoring plays.

Jim McDonald, junior halfback scored twice on 40-yard runs at the end and a 25-yard in the second period.

A pass play from George Miller to Jim Severson covered 61 yards and a 50-yard run by Hal champion light in the second half. After recovering a fumble on the Fraser 37, the Barons took one of four plays to score. Jesse Hill Harley Davis was a pass to the two-yard line from where Kearney kicked.

FRASER powered its way on the ground to the Hills 26 after the kick but the Barons covered a fumble to end the threat.

On the first play James fumbled to be tried to pass and Fraser again had the ball on the 24.

Ed Bill Stouffer did a sparkling defensive job for the Hills, along with Ed Lanzetta, who did his best kicking of the season.

WELL, HOW ABOUT DEM BARONS FINALLY WINNIN A ZAIM AFUR STARVIN SINCE 1952.

Dint see it in de krystal ball, but saw it wit me own eyes.

Ahm glad fur de boys from de Hills, cause dey finilly got sum breaks.

Note can't help wonderin if ah read de krystal ball wrong in de Mishrun State-Noter Dame. Picked de score right on de nose 21-7 but gave it to de wrong team.

SEE DOS Colts missing a chance to win a game by missin de extra point and tyinz Fitzgerald 6-6.

Figured de Little Tigers for 13 points and dey got dat many, and gave Boston College 21 over UD and de got 23 so it wasn't too bad.

WID TWO wrong and a tie dis week de record now shows 31 right, five wrong and one tie.

This Week its dis way: BIRMINGHAM 16, East Detroit 13—Dos extree points wit be worth gold. Callin a safety for de Mapuls.

SOUTHFIELD 19, Van Dyke 13—Heds up Jays, de "dyke" may break!

Clawson 26, TROY 0—No neighborly love here. Harper Woods 20, BLOOMFIELD 12—Already 100 percent better!

Niðs 13, CRANBROOK 13—Cranes miss de big point. U OF D 20, Oklahoma A&M 14—Homecoming on a dry field.

MISHIGUN 27, Minnesota 7—Keepin de brown jug. MISHIGUN STATE 20, Illinois 14—Don't look back, Spartans.

Dave Coons went back to pass and his throw was intercepted by Bowler, who scooted 19 yards for the second touchdown of the period.

IN THE fourth period the fired up Hillmen grabbed a loose ball on the Fraser 31. On third down Morrow passed to Stouffer on the four yard line, from where Morrow carried over for the final score.

Harvey Pranian ended a final Fraser threat by intercepting a pass.
