

City to Honor 74 Employees

Plans are underway by the City of Birmingham to cite a group of long-term employees, nine of whom have been on city payrolls for more than 25 years. Of the 163 city employees, 74 have been with the municipal government five years or longer.

The "Quarter Century" group is composed of City Manager Donald C. Egbert, Willard Brown, Alice Upward, Police Lt. Henry Trimm, Police Lt. Delage Service, Malcolm Ross, Grant Gapping, Police Sgt. Robert Emmett, and Fire Asst. Fire Chief Stanley Peppersell.

Area Trio Seeking Degrees at Brown

Three Birmingham area youths are candidates for bachelor of arts degrees at Brown university, Providence, R. I.

Daniel B. Bereford, son of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Bereford, Bloomfield Hills, is a graduate of Phillips Exeter academy in New Hampshire; Thomas N. Crater, son of Mrs. James P. McConkie, 2425 W. Lincoln, is a graduate of Birmingham high school, and Roger K. Morrison, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Martin, 1263 Brookwood, is a graduate of Cranbrook.

Seek to Ease Ban On No-Left Turns

Birmingham City Commissioner William Roberts asked City Manager D. C. Egbert why motorists were prohibited at all times from turning left off Maple onto Hunter Blvd.

"Don't really see necessity of the blanket restriction, when the problem exists only certain hours of the day," Roberts said.

"The state highway department owns those no left turn signs—we can ask them what the reason is," responded Egbert.

We Heard It Said By:

LESLIE SCHAEFER, 120 Hawthorne, Birmingham:

"When we voted for the artificial ice skating rink, many objected to it being open to the whole area, since Birmingham residents were paying for the facilities, but were assured that if it became too crowded, it would then be closed as Springdale. We have also heard that Springdale is being considered again for the benefit of the whole area—WHY, since it is crowded enough with Birmingham residents who are paying to enjoy its benefits? We are willing to pay higher taxes, and do without free school bus service—which the surrounding areas are granted—to enjoy many extra privileges, such as good fire protection, police, library, water and recreation. We maintain it is our right to administer these facilities. For example, if Franklin or Bloomfield Village voted a village swimming pool, we certainly wouldn't feel that they should share their facilities with us just because we are in the same school district, and I very much doubt that they would think of letting it be administered by the recreation board."

Rezoning Hearing

A hearing has been set for Nov. 21 on the request of Frederick A. Grant to have four lots in the Birmingham Crestview subdivision rezoned from single family to business A. The property is located on Southfield road.

Propose New Name For Red Cross Unit

Four names for one were proposed at the Oct. 19 American Red Cross executive committee meeting attended by Mrs. John Blanchard of Bloomfield Hills.

Stating that "home service department" did not cover the services of the group, she suggested these proposed changes: Military Welfare Service, Home Service to Military and Veterans, Families, Family Service for Service, Veterans and Dependents, or Service to Armed Forces and Service.

Learning to play a piano, for example, requires countless hours of dedicated practice; learning how to develop and use the best inherent talents we possess also requires dedicated practice. One doesn't achieve haphazardly.
