

Judge Agrees To Rehearing

Circuit Judge Frank Doty has granted a rehearing in a Birmingham zoning case involving Birmingham Attorney Forster S. Haswell and Monday.

Judge Doty Oct. 17 ordered a writ issued before the plaintiff, Mrs. Alma Grimes, was through being questioned by her attorney and before the city had had a chance to make its arguments.

Charter Vote Date Set in Troy Twp.

TROY, Twp. — Residents will vote Dec. 12 on the proposed city charter, and select a mayor, six commissioners, justice and associate justice.

BITS OF BIRMINGHAM

JUNIORS AT THE high school are to be complimented on the manner in which their group marched in their Field Day. Timing their steps to the "tick tock" of the huge clock, the group marked time with a sideward swaying of their bodies and a sort of rhythmic stamp of their feet.

WHOSE DOGS are roaming the Oak-Waddington street area? That's what sculptor Marshall Fredericks, 875 Waddington, would like to determine.

GRATITUDE SEEMS LIKE a small amount to pay three men who have put countless hours on a community project, but the three Lathrup men—John Olaszewski, Earl Hanson and Sam A. MacArthur—seemed satisfied with it.

FOR THE THIRD consecutive year, employees at MacManus, John & Adams ad agency in Bloomfield Hills have subscribed 100 percent to the local United Foundation campaign.

JUDY CONRAD REMEMBERED last year when James' father's son, Dr. Cecil Conrad, took her brother to St. James' father-son banquet and she made it known she'd like to come this year.

IT WAS announced Tuesday that children attending Holy Name school are joining the UNICEF program this year. As they seek gifts on "trick or treat" night it will be items of clothing they want, not the customary candy and goodies.

BIRMINGHAM DPW Supt. Robert Kenning is complimenting his staff on the "new look" at the DPW's Eton yard.

BRRRRR! That frost that glistened on the grass this past few mornings gives most of us a desire to burrito deeper under the covers and stay in bed.

HEADED SOUTHWARD on Telegraph Rd. a few days ago was a 1954 Pontiac automobile, bearing a Mississippi license plate. The usual "PONTIAC" in metal was fastened to its hood in front.

HEAVY HUNTING traffic along Woodward avenue at the end of last weekend built up so much that the traffic light at Long Lake was backing cars up for several blocks.

FOR THE BENEFIT of local posterity, also our readers who presently live where the sun shines the year 'round, let it be recorded here that 1955's first snow-sleet storm arrived in Birmingham and vicinity at about 1:22 p.m., October 21.

OF ALL PLACES for illegalities, it has to happen to the Southfield Police department. It's not that serious, however. It seems township trustees learned for the first time Tuesday night that their police force has not been sworn in and that the township has not been working under $5,000 bond.

EUGENE SWEM, Southfield township supervisor, found himself in a peculiar situation Tuesday night. Seems he thought he was voting for a special meeting to be held Nov. 13, while the board's meeting for a meeting Nov. 15, "let's vote again," said Swem.
