TINY TOYS that will be sold at Bloomfield Village's Halloween Fair tomorrow night are checked by four committee women. Mrs. McKike, at right, made them.

Bloomfield Fair Features Carousel, Toys

Eleventh hour "tune-up" for tomorrow night's Halloween Fair at Bloomfield Village school brought top enthusiasm to committees this week.

Plans on events for the fair is an outdoor carousel, being loaned through arrangements of Mr. and Mrs. Fred McKimmon of the P.T.A. The traditional party at the school has become a family night of fun, with supper being planned by Mrs. Joseph Thomas, Mrs. David Falconer, Mrs. Ronald Beech and Mrs. H. C. Robeson.

APPEALING pantry goodies will be at Mrs. Arthur Newman's booth of baked goods sale, with second and third grade mothers aiding. For Adults only is a surprise feature for all parents, according to Mrs. Louis Bauer and Mrs. D. Pierson Smith. The Hanne Eymann and the Harner Selvidges have procured movie entertainment for all ages, including the coloring, featuring Blue Angels in the Air Show.

CARNIVAL atmosphere will be Harvey Peters, Jr., To Take Bride On December 17

Date that Harvey S. Peters, Jr., will take Ruth Ann Wong as his bride has been set as December 17, it has been announced.

The bride-elect is daughter of Mrs. Roland H. Wong and the late Rev. Wong of Beaver Dam, Wis., and lives in Springfield, Ill.

Peters' parents are the Harvey S. Peters of Kirkshire, Birmingham. He is a Phi Kappa Alpha member and a senior at Wittenberg college and will enter Hamma Divinity school next fall.

His fiancée, a Wittenberg graduate and an Alpha Delta Pi, works with the social security administration in Ohio.

Six Ponies Draw Wagon at Quarten

Six ponies will draw a big circus wagon full of children at the Quarten Fair, tomorrow starting at 9:30 a.m. Toys may also be saddle ponies, all volunteered by the Ivory Moving and Storage Company of Detroit, weather permitting. Pack B2 of the Cub Scouts, under the direction of Mrs. H. L. Spencer has arranged this.
