MRS. EDMUND NOLAN relaxes amid informal furnishings and gaily painted decorative accessories in the Nolan's large recreation room.

Alumni Work Not Wasting Time, Avers Young Mother

College alumni group activities are not "living in the past," avers Mrs. Edmund T. Nolan, who entertained a committee of her University of Detroit Alumnae group last week at her home on Hamilton, Bloomfield township.

Others in the group had reported alumnae they had contacted and alumnae of other schools as feeling professional groups and friends of their own age bracket were more worthwhile than alumni groups.

"I feel my university is worthy of any help alumnae can give," she said to balance the charge that alumnae groups don't help the individual to develop.

"YOU HAVE a lot in common with those who went to your university," she says.

Mrs. Nolan, who this week is busily abating with final details for the U-D Alumnae's party tomorrow night at the Latin Quarter, limits her club activities to the alumnae and Christ Child society. With five children, including Janie, 3, who's at home all day, this is activity enough, she says.

FOR THE Christ Child group, she's making Christmas gift handwork for their sale, but for two years guided probationers in their

Martha Griffiths Talks to Women In Southfield

Martha W. Griffiths, Member of Congress from the 17th District, will speak at the Colony Hall, 8 1/2 Miles S. of Evergreen, Southfield Township, on Tuesday at 8:00 p.m., under sponsorship of the Southfield Democratic Women's club.

Mrs. Griffiths, who received her law degree from the University of Michigan, has practiced law and also presided as a Judge of Recorder's Court in Wayne county. In 1948 she was elected to the State House of Representatives, where she won the acclaim of the Capital Press Corps as one of Michigan's ten best legislators.

In 1953 she was named by one of the metropolitan daily newspapers as one of Detroit's twelve women of achievement. During her 1952 Congressional campaign she attracted national wide attention when she made use of a house-trailer in her efforts to meet as many citizens as possible in their own neighborhoods.

HER ELECTION to Congress in 1954 established her as the first woman to win a Congressional seat in Detroit.

The Southfield Club invites the public to attend the meeting, and meet Mrs. Griffiths.

Club-Financed Forestry Study Is Talk-Topic

A forestry student on the Bloomfield Hills Garden club's scholarship to University of Michigan will talk to the club at its Nov. 7 meeting, the club's board of directors learned Monday.

Lawrence Davis will talk at Mrs. Edward S. Wellock's home on Kirkway, Bloomfield township, on forestry student activities.

The board met Monday at Mrs. Leslie H. Green's home on her estate "Turtle Lake Farms," where her greenhouse had yielded up red and white carnations for buffet table decor. Mrs. J. Hawley Otis, president of the club, presided.

Reports were heard in a morning business meeting led by Mrs. Otis, given by Mrs. Frederick G. Wood, Mrs. Leroy Vandover, Mrs. Louis Savage, Mrs. Edward P. Turner, Mrs. Frederick Jaynes, and Mrs. John D. Tobben on their committees.
