

Selfishness may be manifested in many ways. To play the part of a hog in getting material things is selfish, yet he whose untutored nature requires that he be first in many situations, who whines often, also is selfish.

Little Football Learners aren't taking a back seat to anyone, whether high school, college or pro when it comes to giving their games the color of the gridiron season. Here's some of the action at Pierce field on Saturday afternoons when the Birmingham Little Tigers play their games.

1.) EXCITEMENT runs high for the many spectators, mostly parents and friends who chew their nails, scream and cheer on the team, while . . .

Little League Football Has Professional Touch

in his portable chair charting the progress of the team along side . . .

3.) THE BENCH where the reserves show mixed emotions about the play on the field. The majority of the 35 players on each team get into every game.

4.) With full-dress uniform and equipment and even some charcoal under the eyes for shadow. Here the team general manager Dick Sauerbrun has the chore of giving the young gridders the charcoal treatment out of the drum used for burning wood after which . . .

5.) CHEERS go up for the incoming Tigers from their own cheerleaders Barbara Ferguson, 514 Chesterfield, Margie Wallace, 852 Puritan, Francis Quillian, 782 Chesterfield, Marcia Warren, 270 Pleasant and Kris Forster, 575 Shirley, and across the way the . . .

and Art Farrell (right), bursting out the starting line ups giving details of the plays which the spectators follow with the . . .

7.) PROGRAMS that are even printed with the full rosters of the players. Here Mrs. William Fuller, 623 Bird, gives contribution for a program from neighbor Mrs. Howard Buck of 931 Bird.

Saturday the Little Tigers play their final game of the season against Royal Oak at Pierce field at 1:00 p.m. to close a successful first year. The junior varsity plays the preliminary game Saturday.

Box Lunch Starts UF's Residential Drive Here

Birmingham's 1955 Torch Drive got underway last week at a "kickoff box lunch" at Cranbrook gymnasium. (ABOVE)

TOP LEFT: Among those leading the local effort to raise $290,485 are (from left), Mrs. Theodore O. Yntema, Mrs. Donald W. Richards, Mrs. C. H. Dixon, Mrs. Haines P. Walmsley, Mrs. E. A. Schirmer, Mrs. J. Nawley Otis, Mrs. Arthur P. Laffoon.

LOWER LEFT: Area chairmen for Birmingham conferring before opening of annual luncheon were (from left), Mrs. D. F. Mosher, Mrs. Irving A. Duffy, Mrs. Charles F. Tanner, Mrs. Clyde C. Bennett, Jr., and Mrs. Joseph C. Dodge.

TOP RIGHT: Poho therapist Miss Rita Eck of the Sister Kenny Clinic, introduced handsome Danny Hill, clinic patient, to Irving R. Babcock, campaign chairman of the B-B-F Torch Drive. Danny helped kick off the drive.

LOWER RIGHT: Box social was enjoyed by several hundred volunteers who attended.