Bit O' Verse

AUTUMN LEAVES

Now the Autumn leaves are falling.
For their work has all been done.
They have formed a bower of beauty.
Shaded us from summer sun.

Turned to flaming red and gold.
Spreading beauty, Oh! so rare.
Knowing winter's in the offing.
When the trees stand stark and bare.

Then the brown and withered leaves,
Fall so softly to the earth.
It is then we miss their beauty.
And appreciate their worth.

PROF. P. W. SLOSSON

UM Alumnae Slate Talk By Professor

Prof. Preston W. Slosson will be the speaker for the University of Michigan Alumnae meeting November 8th at 8 p.m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Vander-Kloot, Lone Pine road, Bloomfield Hills. Husbands of the Birmingham Alumnae have been invited to attend.

Mrs. Fred Henry, president, will preside at the meeting with Mrs. Tom Evans having charge of hospitality. Mrs. Marion Neff and Mrs. Norris Host will report on the recent national council meeting in Ann Arbor.

PROF. SLOSSON is a great favorite with all former Michigan students in his role as professor of history, the committee reports, because of his ability to make history an interesting subject and his warm human relationship with undergraduate students.

Many basic books on European history have been written by Professor Slosson and during sabbatical leave last year he spent most of his time in Germany.
