Women Sponsor World Communion Plan

World Communion Day observances in Birmingham are again being sponsored by the United Church Women, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Charles Clyde Adams.

In announcing the Nov. 4 observance, Mrs. Adams said the group has been fortunate to secure Mrs. David D. Baker of New York City, editor of "The Church Woman," to speak.

All women are invited to the program scheduled for 10 a.m. Nov. 4, at the Congregational church, N. Woodward.

This year's special project is clothing for boys 12 years and older and general clothing for children. Suits and overcoats are especially needed.

MATERIALS such as denim and sheeting are needed to infuse women to be made into work clothes for their husbands and sons.

Offerings at the Birmingham World Communion services will be added to others to buy food for shipment to Japan on the Share Our Surplus program.

Money to buy seed, tools, household equipment and personal needs are to be made to maintain villages in Greece and Austria.

Assisting Mrs. Adams in plans are Mrs. Maxwell Allen, Mrs. Dale T. McNutt, Mrs. Ira C. Brownell, Mrs. Robert A. Wendler, Mrs. Merwin C. Trague, Mrs. George A. Jaudy and Mrs. Robert T. Gaddy.

Preparation For Retirement . . .

... is now recognized as an important period in life. For years in retirement can be as happy and healthy as you are willing to plan for.

Do not become an habitual patent medicine user. See your Doctor frequently and take only the medicines he prescribes. Gradually slow down and enjoys the days more as they pass by, keeping a careful check on your health.
