Mysterious Stranger Tells Fortunes at Scout Meetings

Girl Scout Troop 165 celebrated Halloween a bit early this year with a masquerade party at the home of their leader, Mrs. T. A. Gibbs.

During the evening a strange personage appeared with a crystal ball telling the girls' past and futures with uncanny accuracy. When all events were forecast the mysterious stranger disappeared through a haze of hanging apples as quietly as he, she or it came.

A series of chain bridge parties wound up Monday afternoon at a luncheon and card party at the home of Mrs. James Brook. Co-chairmen of the 10 table benefit party were Mrs. Richard Mowczynski, and Mrs. William Soper. The parties were a part of the St. Bede Sanctuary plan for fund raising.

To celebrate her daughter Pamela's ninth birthday, Mrs. Richard Kuppel, Cambridge, entertained at a birthday party with luncheon and games last Saturday. Invited were 20 of Pamela's friends.

Dr. and Mrs. Lawrence W. Gardner of Glenwood attended the convention of the American Society of Pathology in Chicago. Charles Kettering was guest speaker at the annual banquet which they attended.

New arrivals recently baptized at St. Bede's church by Rev. C. J. Keating are Robin Lynn Adams, Donald Edward Richard, Gina Marie Toppo, and Patricia Alice and Frances Ann Dick.

Mrs. James Brook, president of St. Bede's Sanctuary Society, announced a Christmas Fair to be held Nov. 13 in Lathrup School auditorium from 2 to 7 p.m. All St. Bede's guilds are working together to raise funds to furnish the kitchen in the new church.

The engagement has been announced of Margaret Tixel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Tixel of Wisconsin, in Detroit, to James T. Worlton, Jr., James is the older son of the James T. Worlton of Sunnybrook.

Mrs. H. G. English of Lathrup, entertained at a desert luncheon and card party last Thursday. Guests were Mrs. Lloyd Bishop, Mrs. Frank Fleischer, Mrs. Henry Oht, Mrs. Robert McMillan, Mrs. Edwin Clark, Mrs. William Hayes, and Mrs. Robert Crawford of Flint. Mrs. Crawford, a former member of Lathrup, lived on California.

New neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Neil Livingstone, of Glenwood, moved last Saturday from Highland. Mr. and Mrs. Livingstone are in the sixth grade at Lathrup school; Tom, 9, is in the fourth grade and Deborah, five, has just begun kindergarten. Livingstone is plant manager for the Brown Metal company and is a graduate of Princeton University. Mrs. Livingstone attended North Texas state.

Mr. and Mrs. Karl L. Grimm of Edgemoor, have returned from Washington, D. C. where they visited their son and daughter-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Karl J. Grimm and their small grandchildren, Mina and Michael. The younger Karl is with the Library of Congress in Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. John K. Jones of Golden Gate, are proud grandparents of David Bradley Stuart born to the Clark St. a pair of Cherry Hill Road, Inkster, Sept. 27. Mrs. Stuart is the former Beverly Jones. The young grandparents are the David F. Stuarts formerly of Sunset.

Lathrup Children To Attend Concerts

LATHRUP—A group of Lathrup school children will attend "The World of Music," first of four young people's concerts by the Detroit Symphony orchestra at Masonic temple Saturday, Oct. 29, at 11:00 a.m.

Miss Josephine Connor, music teacher at Lathrup school, will accompany the children on the trip. There will be two mothers.

Stuart Hampel, cartoonist, associated with Al Capp on the El Abner comic strip, will sketch in perfect time with the orchestra.

Twenty-seven children have purchased tickets for the series, while many others have bought tickets for individual concerts. The concerts are sponsored by Lathrup PTA.

Nursery Group Now Forming in Lathrup

LATHRUP—A cooperative nursery group is now forming in Lathrup. A course on the organization and operation of the nursery along with nursery technique is being given Lathrup members by the Wayne-Oakland Nursery Council.

The nursery plans to begin operation in January on weekday mornings from 9 to 11:30 and find Neil Jr. 10, is in the sixth grade at Lathrup school; Tom, 9, is in the fourth grade and Deborah, five, has just begun kindergarten.

Four New Brownie Troops Will Take in 55 Youngsters

Four new Brownie troops have been formed with the opening of Beverly school this year. Leaders are Mrs. Richard Maurer of Devonshire with Mrs. Charles Hazard of Riverside as assistant; Mrs. J. W. Dahn of Lathrup and Mrs. Albert Gotsdard of Belknap as assistant; Mrs. Peter Decker of Roseyear with Mrs. M. J. Christiansen assisting, and Mrs. Bernard Fetzer of Westlady assisted by Mrs. Philip Detweiler.

Eligible for Brownie membership are 55 girls who will be assigned to the four new troops.

A meeting for leaders and co-leaders of Brownies and Future Date Girl Scouts was held at the home of Mrs. Harold C. Reusser on Mayfair Monday, Oct. 24.

An "Outdoor" day at Indianwood camp was spent by Girl Scout leaders on Tuesday, Oct. 11. The group was broken up into small units to study outdoor life and nature.

Present were Mrs. M. D. Douglas of Evergreen, Mrs. Gerald Joyce of Southfield, Mrs. J. W. Haring of Bragwood, Mrs. Otto Melke of Beverly, Mrs. Sam Whitley of Hillcrest, Mrs. J. W. Dahn of Lathrup, Mrs. Joseph Braden of Larchdale and Mrs. Harold Reusser of Mayfair.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hazard of Riverside entertained their duplicate bridge club on Friday night. Their twelve guests were from Beverly Hills and Birmingham.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Winters of Warwick have had interesting guests recently. In their home for several days were Mr. and Mrs. Jose Mariero and small daughter, her mother, Mrs. Lewis Stainthorpe, from Montpelier, Ohio, on Oct. 19. Mrs. Stainthorpe has recently moved from Ohio and will soon be settled in her new home in Birmingham. At the tea, 20 guests were present from Beverly Hills, Bloomfield, Birmingham, and the surrounding sections.
