Wing Lake Hunters Return With Birds, Strawberry Jam

Partridge hunting really can get you into a "jam". Such was the experience of Mr. and Mrs. William Clack, Lakewood and friends Mr. and Mrs. Edward Pratt of Beverly Hills, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Petermann, Royal Oak and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Davey, Clawson.

These three couples packed their gear and took off by train for Capreol, Ont. From the train they were loaded into a truck and driven for two hours into the really deep forest to hunt for birds.

Despite constant rain, they proceeded to hunt and fish, with good results. They returned with a count of 22 birds to their credit. With their party were two back campers and a cook. The cook served the hunters a strawberry jam for breakfast each morning. So good

PLEDGES CHI OMEGA

Susan Cole, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Cole, Warrington road, was home from Hillsdale college for the past weekend. She is a pledge to Chi Omega sorority on the campus and has been elected vice president of the pledges. Susan has also captured the co-ed in the first play of the season to be given in December by the Tower players, campus dramatic club.

WING LAKE PTO

The PTO of Wing Lake school gave a tea for new room mothers Oct. 17. The two male teachers present did a magnificent job of pouring.

The tea table bore a floral center piece and Mrs. Fred Gould, Monterey Court, introduced the room mothers. Plans were made to assist teachers with their Halloween parties.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Shaw, Sheringham, entertained their bridge club Saturday night. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. D. R. O'Connor and Mr. and Mrs. Loren Dahl, both of Detroit. Mr. and Mrs. Larry Whititt, Dearborn and Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Fuller and Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Whaling, both of Birmingham.

Mrs. Shaw entertained the 30 members of her church circle of the Mayflower Congregational church, Detroit, Oct. 18 at her home.

Following dessert and coffee, a business meeting was held at which they discussed final plans for the "Fall Fair" to be held Nov. 3 at the church. Decorations throughout Mrs. Shaw's home were in the fall motif.

Recent house guests of the Raymond Shaws were their daughter and son-in-law, the Robert Dressels and Little Deane from Norfolk, Va. Lt. Dressel who is with the U.S. Navy leaves Nov. 1 for the Mediterranean.

Mr. and Mrs. James Dugan, Thurber road, entertained Saturday evening at bridge and charades. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Orr, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Townsend and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dunham.

Clever prizes and a midnight lunch completed a gay evening.

Alfred Kasemeyer and son Bob have been enjoying several weekends of hunting during the month of October. On one of these trips, young Bob got a 16-pound raccoon which he subsequently skinned and dressed himself. Sir raccoon now reposes in the deep freezer, waiting to grace the table one of these fall evenings as its rare delicacy of white meat is its characteristic.

ASSOCIATION'S HALLOWEEN PARTY

Wing Lake Farms association Halloween party will be held at Wing Lake school Oct. 31. From 5:30 to 6:30 p.m. costumes will be judged with prizes for the prettiest, scariest, most original and funniest in different age groups of children. The groups will be ages one to four; five to seven; and eight years and up.

Following a family potluck supper, there will be movies for the children, social hour for adults and a separate room for teenagers with cards and records for their entertainment.

Announces the Temporary Closing of our Birmingham Branch Store

Because our present store is not large enough to adequately display our complete lines of furniture and accessory pieces, we are forced to close temporarily until a suitable location and larger quarters can be arranged. At that time, we can serve your home furnishings needs and you will be able to choose from a wide selection.

We'll Be Back at a Later Date

In the past year, during which we have been located at 4062 West Maple Road, we have enjoyed making new friends and customers. However, we have felt our facilities were inadequate to serve you properly.

Come and Visit Us in Our Main Detroit Store, Mack at Nottingham

The map below will aid you in finding your way to our Detroit store where selections of fine furniture and fabrics are complete. We'll look forward to seeing you there.
