Benjamin Brewsters Home After Seven Weeks in East

Mrs. Benjamin Brewster of Brookdale, Bloomfield township, is home after seven weeks in the East. Mr. Brewster spent some time with the family at West Port Point, Mass., where they vacation each year.
Business, however, brought him home ahead of the others. Daughters, Beatrice and Alison were there. Alison having arrived from Austria on Labor Day after spending the summer living with the Austrian family on the exchange program in international living.
Mrs. Brewster is now attending the University of Michigan where she is a senior. Beatrice graduated from Vassar this past June.
C. Allen Hagan of North Adams road is chairman of the "Togger-Plan" under way to organize Ex-Ex-Scout troops in the Birmingham area. Over 100 representatives from 13 local organizations were present last evening at a dinner and business meeting at the Community Home Club by the Birmingham Home which touched off the drive.
Mrs. Richard H. Smith of Adams road and her mother, Mrs. Erik Berghagren, with Mrs. Gordon Nugent, Westport Hill drive and Mrs. Frederick Oliver of Pine Hill drive attended the Detroit Grand Opera benefit tea given by Mrs. Ralph L. Polk in her Bloomfield Hills home.
Last week the newly decorated dining room was the scene for a surprise birthday party given for Mrs. Fred E. Higley of North Adams road. Mrs. Bigelow, wearing a dinner gown of cinnamon peau de soie, a compliment to her tawnytone hair arrived for dinner with Mr. Bigelow, ever so surprised to find guests waiting to greet her with "Happy Birthdays" cheers.
Mr. Higley had planned the party and invited Mr. and Mrs. John Barr and Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Grant of Chatham, Ont., Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Eberhardt of Jackson, and Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Ryder of Detroit.
The Robert L. Staceys of Pine Hill are home after a golfing vacation at Grove Park Inn in Asheville, N. C. They flew down and back and report they had beautiful weather the four days they were in Asheville.
Mr. and Mrs. Leroy W. Dahlberg have moved from 2363 Brookdale and are now residing in Cranbrook Manor, awaiting the completion of their new home in Hutgate.

This gives us opportunity to welcome to our neighborhood Mr. and Mrs. Carroll B. Cary, former of Detroit, who purchased the Dahlberg property and moved there three weeks ago.
Snowed under with droplets and jodging paint brushes, Mrs. Cary took time out to say she and Mr. Cary are happy to be out here. Their son and daughter-in-law, William B. and Susie Cary, East Square Lake road, will be close and able to visit with them more often. Cary is a partner of the firm of Payne, Weber, Jackson and Curtis in the Fisher building.
Mr. and Mrs. Cary belong to the Detroit Golf Club and are active members in the North Congregational church in Detroit.

BABY SHOWER
Mrs. Richard H. Smith of North Adams road, Mrs. E. E. Hopper, Jr. of Meadowlane and Mrs. Roland Smith of Meadowlane, neighbors in Hickory Heights, shared honors as co-hostesses last week Monday morning at ten to a Coffee-Time miscellaneous baby shower for Mrs. L. J. Harwood of Meadowlane.
Guests who came laden with gifts for baby Thomas were Mrs. Louis Deak, Jr. of Pine Hill, Mrs. Leslie J. Keller and Mrs. H. P. Pinson of Orchard Hill, Mrs. Harold A. Hall and Mrs. L. A. Gilley of Meadowlane, and Mrs. Charles W. Weikel of Yosemite, Birmingham.
Mrs. Michael Kovack of Pine Hill

Stalag 17' Shaping Up For Players
Birmingham Village Players have Dr. Jack Hassberger and Mrs. Edward S. Reid, Jr., directors of such hits as "Mr. Roberts" and "The Reins as "Stalag 17'" gets ready for staging Oct. 21, 22, 28 and 29.
Cast members have been selected and the group tried to find 22 men among their members not overworked in automotive fields or reluctant to take time from all hunting activities.
The amiable cast managers to make rehearsals informal, friendly affairs, with only two women on deck to dampen their enthusiasms, Mrs. Reid, co-director, and Mrs. Richard Brown, holding lines.
"SINCE HASSBERGER and many of the cast have armed forces backgrounds, the job of becoming "POWS" has not been too difficult. The lusty humor, homesickness, fears, suspicions and hopes, all familiar to all of them and comes easily.
A few are having trouble acquiring the proper foreign accents but are progressing rapidly toward their goal.
"Stalag 17'" will bring the Scene Workshop group into its production with 10 members working on the set from original diagrams and sketches.

DeGraff's Moving
