

Unless one has a good appetite, one cannot eat a good meal; the appetite must be there to invite the life-sustaining food. So it is with one's mind and body; one must develop receptivity for "inner food" in order to eat and digest it.

Concludes Career Begun Locally

A social case worker who worked (at payroll for many years, as probation administrator of the girls, has retired from her Honolulu position. Having been on the territory at Kula, Oahu, she'll be pitching in on community social problems, she says. She lived several years here before moving to Detroit in 1926, where she worked with the Girls' protective league until 1933.

Graefield-Derby

Fran Shaffner MI 6-0628

New Residents Welcomed By New Area Columnist

Introducing a new columnist for the Graefield-Derby area—Mrs. John J. Shaffner, 1746 Graefield, who will write the social events, big and little happenings in her community.

Mrs. Shaffner, a resident of Graefield for three years, until recently has been employed as a private secretary in Detroit and has taken evening courses in sociology at Wayne University, just for fun.

Her husband, a sales representative for Cadillac, Cass avenue factory branch, is a native of Birmingham. An appealing black-cocker spaniel completes the Shaffner household.

Former residents of Detroit now living at 875 Graefield road are Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Anderson. Anderson, sales representative for the Randall company, attended University of Detroit and Wayne University, and is a golf enthusiast. There are two children in the Anderson family, Mary Lee, 4 years and Kathy Ann, 4 months.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Lund are residing at 1629 Graefield road, having recently arrived from Thomson, S. C. Lund has a Master's degree from Clemson college and prior to coming to Birmingham was doing research at that college in agricultural engineering. He is presently associated with Ford Tractor and Implement division in production planning.

Mrs. Lund has the distinction of being the niece of former Governor Richard Manning Jeffries of South Carolina. She is a member of the DAR, UDC, and considers her main interest and hobby to be cooking. The Lunds have a son, Carl, Jr., 9, whose nickname is "Mickey".

erbee. He is assistant division manager for the southeast division of Consumers Power Co., a graduate of the University of Michigan and is very interested and active in civic organizations.

The Hedgecocks have two children, Ann, a student at Central Michigan College and 5 year old Tony. Everyone in the family is a skier. They also enjoy golf.

Welcome also to Mr. and Mrs. John Rakick and sons, Ronald and Douglas, formerly of Detroit, who are residing at 2146 Derby road. He is employed by the Clarke Engineering and Machine Co.

TROYTON MANOR

Troyton Manor Home Owners association met at the home of Jack Clark, Witherbee, Sept. 27. A draft of the bylaws and constitution was prepared for presentation to members for approval at a general meeting to be held at Pomona school Monday evening.

Oct. 10. Attorney William Dye presented incorporation papers for the establishment of Troyton Manor as a non-profit-making organization which will be submitted to the State of Michigan for establishment of the sub-division.

At the meeting to be held Oct. 10, the nominating committee will present the names of nominees for the various offices necessary for the administration of the sub-division.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Frank, 1888 Graefield road, recently spent a weekend as the guests of the Waverline chapter of the Michigan Electronic representatives association at Johnson's Rustic Lodge at Houghton Lake.

Mrs. Frank's game of golf wasn't good enough for a prize but Mr. Frank won the prize for the largest fish taken and the only one to members for approval at a general meeting to be held at Pomona school Monday evening.

INTRODUCING
a new approach to color
in men's tweeds

"Charred Heathers"

Stroock
FOLKWEAVE*

featuring the very new Charred Tones

Stroock Folkweaves are now available in luxurious new color effects! By skillfully inter-blending as many as eleven harmonious colors in Stroock Superwools, they have achieved shadings and undertones that take tweed far beyond its old color boundaries.

And H. Freeman & Son of Philadelphia have meticulously fashioned these unique new tweeds into Suits, Sport Coats and Topcoats more flattering than tweeds have ever been before.

To those who seek a new look in tweeds . . . we submit the new Stroock Folkweave "Charred Heathers" — the classics of tomorrow.
