Young Philip Davis Played Part in Theatrical Group

Philip Davis, 7, son of the Orville P. Davises, performed at the Maxinkuckee playhouse this summer, playing the part of an eight-year-old orphan in "King of Hearts." Proud parents thought Philip did a regular professional job of acting.

The play house is located near the Davis summer home in Culler, Ind. and although Philip has helped around the playhouse for the past several summers, this was his first appearance as an actor.

When the J. D. Ivanoff home on Old Mill road was photographed for a recent Sunday night TV program, Mrs. Ivanoff reported that the place overcame with TV cameras, lights, microphones, lines, cables, TV technicians, and program announcers plus narrators were milling around her home for over two hours. Taking shot after shot over and over again the television program showed the tri-level Ivanoff home on camera for only a minute and a half.

Mrs. Timothy Cruise of Wedgewood, a member of the Christ Child society, is director of the society's party at the Latin Quarter, scheduled for Nov. 4.

School Board Needs Bond Sale Approval

SOUTHFIELD—According to Glenn Schoenhals, superintendent of Southfield schools, a bonding resolution was voted at the last meeting of the school board on Sept. 22, which will constitute the agreement between the school district and purchaser of the $5 million in bonds.

At the present time the board is completing the application to the Michigan Municipal Finance Commission in Lansing for a certificate giving authority to sell the bonds.

When the Board receives approval of the application a date will be set for sale of the bonds.

New Officers Named For Sewing Group

WEST BEVERLY—First meeting of the West Beverly Sewing group will be held Tuesday, Oct. 18 at the home of Mrs. Harold Souder, 18412 Devonshire, with Mrs. Edmond Conover and Mrs. Henry Gunther, co-hostesses.

New officers of the group are: Mrs. Donald Kaimback, president; Mrs. Janice Ray, secretary; Mrs. Edmond Conover, treasurer. New comers to Beverly who like to sew will be welcomed at these meetings and are invited to call the hostesses for details. The garments made are donated to worthy charities.

Games and enjoyed the outdoor barbecue but highlight of the party was when the Sokols' neighbor, Mrs. Richard Nette, a former Art Murray instructor, taught the party guests some rumba steps.

Guests who wished Patricia related happy birthday were boys and girls from Dearborn who were brought to the party by Mrs. Harold Bliss and Mrs. Walter Schiel.

Return from Three-Week European Tour Via Airways

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Buss, Worlington road, have returned from a three-weeks trip by air to Europe. Leaving New York via Swisair, they landed first in Shannon, Ireland. From there they flew to Frankfurt, Germany and then to Zurich, Switzerland.

On day they were entertained with a motor trip to Geneva where they visited the United Nations and points of interest there. They also visited Interlachen and lake Geneva.

At the close of Buss's business commitments, they remained another two weeks in Europe, visiting several countries by air. From Rome where they spent several days visiting the Vatican, Roman ruins, cathedrals and sight-seeing. From Rome they took AirFrance to Nice, Paris and Versailles.

They also visited the Oxford university campus. They remained in London five days visiting Westminster Abbey, the Royal palace and all the well known sights of this great historical city. They returned home via Pan-American from London to New York.

MONTANA MOTOR TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. George Barton, West Surrey, returned the middle of September from a month's motor trip to Montana. Enroute, they stopped to visit Bushmore and Yellowstone National park.

Guests who wished Patricia returned to Missoula, Mont. where they visited Mrs. Barton's former room-mate at the University of Michigan and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Kuppak.

The Kuppaks joined them for a trip to Glacier National park, Banff and Lake Louise. They then returned to Missoula.

After remaining in Missoula for a week, the two couples then went for another work to the Kuppak's cottage, high in the Rockies on Placid lake.

Mrs. Lee E. Warner of El Paso, Texas was the recent houseguest for a week of her son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. William Warner, Thurber road, New York City.

Mrs. Warner had been visiting her daughter in Dalton, while here she was entertained at luncheons and cards by several friends. She formerly made her home in Birmingham.

A buffet supper and canasta were enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. Don Richards, Thurber, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Labadie, St. Claire Shores at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Harding last Saturday evening.
