Beverly School Room Party Dates Scheduled

Get-acquainted parties for the mothers of the first through sixth grades and the kindergarten of Beverly school have been arranged by the PTA and will be held in the home of one of the room mothers for each class.

On Sept. 20 the morning kindergarten tea was held at the home of Mrs. R. Diesing on Locherbie, with Mrs. J. Cotter as co-hostess, and honored teacher Mrs. Naomi Howard.

Mrs. Howard's afternoon kindergarten tea was held at the home of Mrs. King Ruby on Locherbie, with Mrs. William Slocum co-hostess.

The morning kindergarten tea, honoring Mrs. Carol Davis, was held at the home of Mrs. H. Fairbanks on Riverside. Co-hostesses was Mrs. Thos. Jensen.

Mrs. J. McClanathan and Mrs. J. Andeer entertained Mrs. Davis' afternoon class, at Beverly school. Mrs. E. F. Robertson of Forest lane was hostess and Mrs. C. Danielle, co-hostess for Mr. Sumner's first grade, while Mrs. Boothman's and Miss Barrow's first grades were hosted by Mrs. E. Peterson of Locherbie and Mrs. A. Denison.

On Tuesday parties for Mrs. Rainey's and Mrs. Rostow's second grades were held and yesterday entertaining was for Miss North's second grade.

Still scheduled are events on Oct. 8 for Mrs. Simarek's and Mrs. Terrill's third grades; Oct. 11, Mrs. Johnson's and Mrs. Albert's fourth grades; Oct. 13, Mr. Aiden's fifth grade; Oct. 19 Mrs. Muschella's sixth grade; also Mr. Swart's sixth grade; Nov. 2 Mrs. Olsson's fifth grade.

'Vacation' Theme For Camera Club

Black and white prints on "Vacation" will highlight the Bloomfield Hills Camera club at the Cranbrook institute this evening.

On Oct. 20, Isadore Berger will present slides on "Africa and Its Confusion"

Delegates Named For State Convo

MOMS of America Inc. Unit 3, will travel to Clarkston for their October meeting at the home of Mrs. Frank Smith. After a noon sandwich luncheon, there will be a brief business meeting, followed by the showing of European slides by Mrs. H. R. Estes. Automobiles will leave the Community house at 10:30 a.m., Oct. 10, for Clarkston.

Delegates elected to attend the MOMS State convention at Grand Rapids Oct. 27-29 are Mrs. Clyde Coons, Mrs. J. L. Barribeau and alternates are Mrs. W. Johnstone and Mrs. M. Kordenbock.

Suppers Entertain

Commander and Mrs. Robert F. Supper are entertaining Mr. and Mrs. Tracy Hester of Rhinebeck, N. Y. at their Bloomfield Hills home. Hester is connected with the Rhinebeck Gazette and he and Mrs. Hester are seeing the colorful fall in the Hills area and up north with the Suppers.

New Features Highlighting Platter Party

A revised "Platter Party" continues weekly program at the Birmingham theater with Jack Cataldo, manager and Chuck Goutie, local special mention.

The week's popular record is played, selection made on its local appeal primarily.

"We believe in this thing, its value and potential success," Goutie said, "and intend to do everything we can to make it a 'Friday night must', not only for local teenagers but parents, as well."

part of each weekly show as does the "School Salute", when area high schools and major colleges get special mention.

A new feature is the Junior Press Conference held each Friday before the 6 p.m. show, where area high schools have representatives on hand to interview guest stars.

Another innovation will open this week when the first dance contest is held on stage. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Dodge, managers of the local Murray studio, judge the event that is open to area teenagers.

Goutie and Cataldo have had several guest stars on stage, the most recent being Johnny Desmond and Buddy Greco. Others of equal popularity will be brought to Birmingham for each performance.

Amateur talent, selected from area high schools, also is becoming an integral part of the show. Students from Birmingham, Royal Oak, Pontiac and Berkeley high schools already have appeared.

ABSENCE interviews, with gifts for participants, make up a
