

Parking Ordinance May Backfire on Business

THIS and THAT

Most of a motorist's risks are his own making.

This Ole Car

This ole car once knew some children, This ole car once knew a wife, This ole car once knew a husband And a merry family life . . .

But this family's trips are over, Picked a dang'rous spot to pass— Then they saw death's angel peekin' Through the broken windshield glass

Ain't gonna need this car no longer, Ain't gonna need this car no more— Had no time to fix the brakes up, Had no time to fix the door, Had no time to fix the deerin' Or to driva with more restraint— Ain't gonna need this car no longer, They've been taken to meet the Saint

Like Parachutes, Courts Best If We Don't Need 'Em

Today's highly complex civilization includes a tangled maze of laws, rules, regulations, customs, and other forms of restraint on the individual. How to cut away some of the resulting bewilderment and confusion has been a long-standing problem. An attempt to dispel some of this confusion will be made by The Birmingham Eccentric in a series of articles entitled, "If You're Like Me", prepared and endorsed by the State Bar of Michigan. These articles will be written as if a non-lawyer delved into law books, consulted top lawyers, then reported his findings to you.

indings to you.

Actually, that's what was done, and the State Bar certifies the authenticity of the information.

Here is the first of the series.
