

Members of Mrs. George W. Tischer's bridge club were hostesses at a luncheon shower for her daughter, Sandra, at Orchard Lake Country club. Hostesses were Mrs. LeRoy Keifer, Mrs. Chester Bowie, Mrs. Preston Weir, Mrs. H. B. Stubb, Mrs. Carl Black, Mrs. Orville Beardsley and Mrs. Harold Breitenstein.

A silver hat box with two dozen pink carnations, rosebuds and gladioli, trimmed with pink satin, graced the center of the luncheon table.

Places were set for 34 guests and at each setting was a place card consisting of a miniature book, skillet or grater.

Sandra will become the bride of William S. Bonham on Sept. 2.

Entertain 7 Pi Phi's Last Night

Pi Phi alumnae of Birmingham and Bloomfield, including the province president, Mrs. G. T. Christiansen of Birmingham boulevard, last night served up their favorite buffet dishes for seven officers of the province's five active chapters.

The seven young women, among those attending a three-day Pi Phi workshop at the Dearborn Inn were from University of Michigan, Hillsdale college, Michigan State university, University of Toronto and University of Western Ontario. Mrs. Christiansen, naming to her office last May, is leaving the forum.

EACH OF THE ALUMNAE at tending the dinner last night in the yard of Mrs. William Douglas' home, 215 Fairfax, brought one of her favorite foods, and all of the specialties were spread buffet style on outdoor tables.

Attending were Mrs. C. Philip Bartlett, Mrs. Kenneth Conn, Mrs. G. T. Christiansen, Mrs. Robert C. Good, Mrs. Edwin Karpok, Mrs. Andrew Madsen, Mrs. Henry Morker, Mrs. William Douglas, Mrs. Sidney W. Smith, Jr., and Mrs. Richard Johnson.

Tonight the visiting Pi Phi along with Mrs. Christiansen, Mrs. Philip Detweiler, Panhellenic and rushing representative of the group here, and Mrs. Holmes Joyce Salberg and Barbara Brand, three "activities" from this area will gather at the Dearborn Inn for dinner and a discussion on rushing and Panhellenic activities.

THE WORKSHOPS' purpose is discussion of all phases of active chapter life and the officers' roles in guiding the Pi Phi women's life.

Tomorrow marks closing of the workshop, when girls will return to their homes for several weeks before going back to their colleges and Pi Phi chapters.

Sees Grandchild In Summer in West

When Mrs. Dorothy Roosevelt of Greenwood returned Sunday after a summer with her daughters at their homes out west, she brought tidings of her first grandchild.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald C. Walker of Bellingham, Wash., have a new son, Hal Randolph, born Aug. 26. Mrs. Roosevelt had spent the last six weeks in Bellingham with them.

Earlier in the summer, she met her daughter, Amy, at Denver and the two spent a week at the ranch at Mooker of Amy's first cousin, Elliott Roosevelt.

She visited Mr. and Mrs. Ayar Jackson in San Francisco.

Birth

A daughter, Carolyn Mary, was born Aug. 11 to MR. AND MRS. NORMAN E. CLARK, 1747 Bates. She is their fifth child.

Bridal Dress Shown For German Wedding

A farewell party was given for Marjorie T. Moceri by her mother, Mrs. Alex Kachinko, 1271 Lake Park, last Saturday.

There were 40 guests on hand to wish her happiness and a safe journey to Weisbaden, Germany, where she is to be married at both the city hall and in the church. She will become the bride of A. S. James McManey of Detroit.

Friends drank a toast to the prospective groom and Marjorie when she appeared briefly in her wedding dress for members of the family and friends who would be unable to attend the wedding in Germany.

Last week Marjorie and her mother flew to New York City to do some last-minute shopping and were guests at the Waldorf Astoria. They also had seats for the play "Fanny" starring Ennio Pinza.

Marjorie plans to be in Germany for a year, or until her new husband completes his term in service.

Play Earns Funds To Train Cancer Society Aides

American Cancer society has taken next Tuesday night's performance at Will-O-Way to earn funds to train volunteer workers.

The theatre party is in charge of Mrs. Ted Keller of Pontiac. Both the board of the North Oakland County, which has headquarters in Pontiac, and the South Oakland board, Royal Oak are sponsoring the event.

Volunteer troupes will be sent to the Kellogg center at Michigan State university, with funds from the theatre event, "Sabrina Fair" is being staged at Will-O-Way.

Tickets are being sold at both Pontiac and Royal Oak A.C.S. offices, or may be obtained by calling Mrs. John K. Boney, 924 Oxford, Birmingham, or at the box office.

Barbara Seaver Back from Study

Back from Chicago where she studied ballet and saw stage plays is Barbara Seaver of 1732 W. Maple, where she will soon open her 14th season of dance classes.

She studied for six weeks at the Stone Farm ballet school, where she had studied seven previous summers. After ballet, character, toe and "flexors" courses, there she spent a free week shopping, swimming in Lake Michigan and seeing the two shows, "Carnegie" and "The Skin of Our Teeth."

Then for a week she studied under Donald Sawyer of New York. Degas ballet prints are setting theme for the new pink and gray decorations in the Seaver studio. There'll be pink bars for the children's exercises.
