

Lyndal Sue Reed Wed In Double-ring Rites

Lyndal Sue Reed became the bride of Russell Wayne Simon in candlelight services Saturday evening at the First Presbyterian chapel.

The Rev. W. Glen Harris, D.D. performed the doubling ceremony at 8 p.m.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford C. Reed, 825 N. Glenhurst. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gale Simon of Bluffton, Ind.

The floor-length bridal gown with long, twisted bodice of chancilly lace had a bouffant tulle skirt. The bride wore a single strand of crystals brought from China by her father for his mother years ago, originally in a rope.

MRS. RUSSELL W. SIMON

A LACE HAT bound with white satin secured her fingertip illusion veil. Ives and stephanotis were mounted on her white Bible.

The maid of honor was Patricia Buckner of Indianapolis, Ind. Bridesmaids were Mary Ann McNary of Centerville, Ind., and Bobbi Balow of Michigan City, Ind.

ALL ATTENDANTS wore street length, dress-length tulle and taffeta trimmed with Venetian applique at the square necklines and at the hipline. Aqua velvet bands were their headpieces. They carried cascade bouquets of pink carnations and ivy.

Best man was DeVon Simon, brother of the groom. Seating the guests were James Bleke, James

Will-O-Way Ends Season with Long 'Sabrina Fair' Run

"Sabrina Fair" by Samuel Taylor is Will-O-Way playhouse's last presentation of their summer season. The play opened August 30, for a three-week run, closing Sept. 18.

"Sabrina Fair" was first presented in New York in late 1953 and promptly established itself as one of the hits of the season. It starred Margaret Sullivan and Joseph Cotten.

The delightful comedy is a kind of modern fairy tale about a young chauffeur's daughter just home from a three-week stay in Paris, who wants to dispel a secret childhood romance with a young millionaire.

The Will-O-Way company will be headed by Maggie O'Hara and Michael Keith. Also included in the cast will be Gerald Harrington, Burton Wright, Patricia Van Don- inck, Robert Bryson, Bertha Forman, Susan Becker and Freddie Morris.

Engagement Told at Cocktail Party

At a cocktail party Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Frederick B. Burden of Adams road, Lake Orion, announced the engagement of their daughter, Elaine, to Lawrence H. Hattich, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert D. Hattich of Pontiac.

Elaine is a graduate of Kingswood School Cranbrook. Many Birmingham young people were among the approximately 125 friends of the couple who received the news of the engagement by telegrams presented as they arrived.

Green and white prevailed throughout in flower arrangements and decorations with attention focused on colored photos of the engaged couple enlivened with smiles in a heart shape.

After graduation from Kingswood, Elaine attended Centenary junior college, both Elaine and Larry are seniors at Michigan State university where she is a member of Sigma Gamma association and he is affiliated with Delta Sigma Phi of which he is president.

Here's why A-SECOND CAR is a NECESSITY

For getting children to school there's nothing like having a second car. It's especially when you have little ones in the school bus and close by.

To enjoy your hobbies a second car is almost a must. With a second car, you can go to the family car garage for fishing, hunting, and the girls can go about their activities. And that's about leaving other members of the family stranded without transportation.

In case of an emergency, a second car might save you a great deal of trouble. And it's there just in case.

For grocery shopping, and all other shopping too, you can call your husband, or your wife, or your second car. Mother's car for shopping to let you get things and more things.

So the young folks can get on. Young people have their own friends and interests to which you usually not the same as father's and Dad's. With two cars in the family, both youngsters and older can come and go as they wish.
