G. R. Mosher's Return from Bar Association Convention

Mr. and Mrs. George R. Mosher, Jr., have returned to their Graefield road home after attending the annual American Bar Association convention in Philadelphia.

Following the convention they journeyed on to New York and Trenton, N. J., where they visited Mosher's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Williams. Then to Atlantic City where Mrs. Mosher was very impressed by the splendid plans the hotels had for families. Both Mr. and Mrs. Mosher agreed that Atlantic City is "absolutely fabulous."

The John J. Shaffner's have also returned to their Graefield road home after attending the 20-year class reunion of Mrs. Shaffner, in Tunkhannock, Pa. While there they were the houseguests of Mrs. Shaffner's parents. Kenneth, with the Shaffners was her nephew seven-year-old David Brandon who will visit here one week.

Eleven countries and thirteen cities were visited by William Hammond during his one-month trip to Europe. Hammond who resides at 298 Brookhaven was sent to Europe on business for the J. Walter Thompson advertising agency.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted G. Young returned to their Withamton road home today after vacationing in Chicago for four days. The Youngs are former Graefield residents.

WELCOME NEIGHBORS
Mr. and Mrs. Philip N. Drew have recently moved into their new home at 1081 Norwich. Mrs. Drew is a native of New Jersey and was born in South Carolina. Formerly of Oak Park, Drew is a wire and cable specialist for General Electric.

An alumnus of Clemson college, S. C., Drew is a golf enthusiast and enjoys hunting and swimming. The Drews' children are ten-year-old Marlene Marie and six-year-old Philip. The family plans to attend the First Methodist church.

Family of DeSchoorn, the George A. Sparks family are busy getting settled at 1684 Witherburn road. Sparks is a draftsman at the General Motors Technical Center. A member of SAE, his hobby is home craft, while Mrs. Sparks is interested in home-making. Six-year-old Christine will attend Pembroke school, her brother is one-year-old Clifford.

Getting settled at 1090 Brookhaven are Mr. and Mrs. John K. Case and their daughter ten-year-old Diane. Both Mr. and Mrs. Case are recent golfers and like to bowl. Case is in the process department for General Motors Research. The Case's moved to Brookhaven from Chapin street.

New residents at 1900 Graefield road are Mr. and Mrs. Shothar Davis. Formerly of Schenectady.
