DCC Names Localite To Plan Receptions

Detroit Commercial college faculty today announced the appointment of Jerine Stark as chairman of the student reception committee for the coming school year. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jared W. Stark, 1321 Puritan.

Miss Stark's duties will be to plan reception of college guests which includes alumni, educators and businessmen.

She was graduated from Birmingham high school in 1953 and begins her second year at the college on Sept. 14.

STRUMMING ukes, Robert Luscombe and George Charbonneau watch the hula dancers, Pauls Luscombe and Lea Marsh, as a group of former high school classmates gather for fun before returning to college schedules.

Pre-College Party Goes Hawaiian

At 18170 Birwood, Southfield township, a back yard turned into a section of Hawaii Saturday evening when a group of young people got together for an evening of fun prior to returning to college.

Just as most of them were high school classmates, so are a number attending Michigan State together.

Lea Marsh was the official hostess, assisted by Paula Luscombe, Robert Luscombe and George Charbonneau.

Guests included Kathy Maynard, Phil Fowler, Kitty Schwanmaker, John Howard, Dave Hamel, Donna Robison, Bonnie McNaughton, A.E. Muller, Pat Ashbaugh and John Hubert.

AMID THE gleaming, colorful paper lanterns, the Hawaiian costumes added their own splash of color. Perhaps the most talked of was the young man who came as a leecher, complete with net, rescued bottles of "liquor" and long knife stuck in his belt.

Hawaiian fare included punch served from a watermelon "boat," submarine sandwiches with large clam shells for plates.

The evening was spent visiting and singing to ukulele accompaniment.

80 Club Juniors
Dance Saturday

When 80 Orchard Lake country club juniors gathered for the second dance of the season last Saturday at the club, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Struck of Bloomfield Village, the J. Reed Alexanders and the Donald Chaffee of Farmington and the A. O. Thalacker of Bloomfield Hills were chaperones.

Thousands of people read The Eccentric Classified Ads. So remember, if you want to sell that hard-to-get-rid-of article, advertise it in the Want Ad section of The Birmingham Eccentric.

Among those attending were Paula Struck with Gordon Paul and Barb Struck with John Archangioli, both boys of Birmingham; Marilyn Chaffee and Tom Platt, and Don Thalacker and Ruth Ann Huffman.

OTHER YOUNG couples dancing were Linda Myers of the Hill with Dick Little of Gross Pointe; Patty Harmon of the Hills and John VanAlstein of Birmingham; Ann Coughlin with Chuck Corp, both of the Hills.

Also there were Sue Leahy of Bloomfield Village with Brad
