

Speak Vows Saturday In Candlelight Rites

Vows and rings were exchanged Saturday evening by Patricia Ellen McGirr and Charles Wells Kitchen. Candlelight rites were read at 8 o'clock by the Rev. Emil Kontz in the first Baptist church before 150 wedding guests.

Patricia is the daughter of Mrs. Allen F. McGirr of Henrietta. Her husband's parents are the Clayton Kitchens of Royal Oak.

The bride wore a floor-length gown of rose point and tulle with a scoop neckline, laque waistline and a hoop skirt. Her fingertip veil fell from a Juliet cap of rose point lace and seed pearls. She carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid and Stephanotis.

CARRYING natural straw baskets of rose petals were Sandra Sholey and Patricia Adams, nieces of the bride. Their floor-length white organza frocks were trimmed in lace with wide sashes of aqua crystallette.

Rick Adams, nephew of the bride was ring bearer.

Neil Kitchen was his brother's best man. Ushers included another brother, Thomas Kitchen, Sam Bishop, cousin of the groom, and Richard Sholey, brother-in-law of the bride.

FROM Vero Beach, Fla., came Mrs. Richard Sholey to be her sister's matron of honor. She was crowned in an aqua floor-length crystallette with a portrait neckline and had a band of braided yellow in her hair. She carried pale yellow faji mums and daisies.

Gowned in frocks identical to the honor maid's were bridesmaids Mrs. Curtis Adams, sister of the bride from Reed City, Sonia Laetz of Ann Arbor and Mrs. William Curley of Mt. Morris.

MRS. McGirr chose a waltz length gown of navy blue with navy and pink accessories and a pale pink spray of orchids.

The groom's mother wore black cotton with a pearl gray nylon jacket and a yellow spray of orchids.

They will honeymoon in Northern Michigan and return to Birmingham to make their home.

First Aid Class For Instructors

With the need for trained first aid personnel brought out in recent eastern flood and hurricane disasters, the Oakland county Red Cross announces its newest class in this field.

Edward Kraren, Des Moines, Ia., will be in Pontiac Sept. 19-23, to teach a class in first aid instructor training.

It is the chapter's idea that the more instructors the county has the easier it will be for citizens to learn first aid by cutting down travel to and from classes.

Trainees for the course must hold standard and advanced first aid certificates. A preliminary course in advance work will be held prior to Sept. 19, scheduled to suit the greatest number of interested persons.

Enrollment may be made at the chapter office, 118 Franklin boulevard, Pontiac.

HSP Will Include 35 From Red Cross

Oakland county Red Cross first for Friday, Sept. 2, but services will number 35 when they take to the highways with the "Holiday Highway Safety Patrol" for the Labor Day weekend.

Hours of service will be from 4:10 p.m. to 10:00 p.m., the time found most often in serious highway crash reports.
