Old Neighbors Surprise
Russell Posts in New Home

Five families on Verona Circle surprised the Russell Posts, who have recently moved to their new home on Suffield. Old neighbors planned the party, surprised Rhett and Russ in their new home and presented them with two wicker chairs for their porch.

Those planning the party were Lucille and Walk Dindoff, Betty and Floyd Reynolds, Donna and Colin Pearl, Lois and George Murphy and Ola and Dave Schutte.

Mrs. B. I. Northwest entertained at a Stanley party Wednesday morning at her home on Kirkshire. To add to the fun of the morning, games were played and prizes distributed.

Guests were Mrs. D. G. Morgan, Mrs. John Dear, Mrs. Orville Counts, Mrs. William Phillipson, Mrs. Lloyd Lenker, Mrs. H. A. Younger and Mrs. John Porter. Others were Mrs. I. W. Erickson, Mrs. Robert Finch, Mrs. Robert King, Mrs. Walter Lewis, Mrs. H. S. Gregory and Mrs. George Guidos.

Polly and Mini, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. William Priditch of Arlington drive, have returned from Camp Magua on Loon lake. Mini, who stayed a month at the camp and worked on several awards during her stay is justly proud of a Red Cross swimming award and a master craftsman award.

Polly, 15, who stayed two weeks as a counselor in training, also enjoyed it even more than all the years she went as a camper.

BABY SHOWER

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stapleton surprised the neighborhood one day last week when they pulled into their driveway at 3223 Auburn with their new son Tommie, five weeks old.

Last evening Mrs. Paul Osterling honored her with a baby shower. Twenty friends and neighbors attended the party.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Reynolds and sons Michael and Jimmie and baby daughter Joan, moved from Verona circle this week to Beverly road.

HAPPY BIRTHDAYS

When Douglas Pearl reached the age of 8 last week, his parents, the Calvin Pearls, treated him and his pals to a "real boys' movie—Davy Crockett.

After the show, they returned to the Pearl home for ice cream and a Davy Crockett cake. Douglas' guests were Michael Reynolds, Terry Jack, Johnny Taggart, Bobbie Capinola, Dick Osterling, Jimmy Casale and Gary Grimes.

Northern Michigan Vacation Enjoyed by Rowland Starrs

Vacationers Mr. and Mrs. Rowland Starr returned to their home on Old Mill road, after spending two weeks vacationing in northern Michigan and the Upper Peninsula.

Their trip took them across the Straits to Munising and then to Keweenaw park in Copper Harbor. On their way they stopped at Blaine Park, crossed the Straits and headed for Locus beach at Traverse City to spend three days swimming and sunning.

Mrs. Starr reported that the swimming was most enjoyable—a wonderful sandy beach and water as clear as a bell.

A FEW COOL DAYS

With temperatures soaring to 100 degrees Sunday afternoon, August 21, Mrs. Robert Reason and daughter Christi of Old Mill road, headed north on Monday morning to spend a few cool days at the summer home of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Reason on Bart Lake at Indian River.

Annually awaiting the arrival of Christi were her cousins, Paul and Vicki Reason who were vacationing with their mother, Mrs. Richard Reason of East Belle Vine Trail, who had arrived at Indian River the Friday before, to spend two weeks with the senior Reasons.

While there, Mrs. Robert Reason and Christi took a side trip to Alpena to visit Mrs. Reason's great aunt, Mrs. Charles D. Tebo.

The day before they left Bart Lake, both mothers piled the children into the car to take a short jaunt to Mackinac City to see the new Mackinac bridge and to let the children see the boats.

With the lake water as warm as toast, Mrs. Reason and Christi enjoyed swimming every day and though longing to stay, they returned home Saturday afternoon.

Friends gathered for breakfast at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Barney Wilkie on Westlady road, Sunday, August 28. An egg nog drink was served before breakfast of pineapple flap-jacks, sausage and coffee, cake and loads of canned fruit.

After breakfast, the Wilkies and their guests relaxed and chatted on the back terrace. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Matt Marcy of Detroit, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Tomney and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Liaka, both of Dearborn.

Does anyone want pearls? The Don Spragues of Westlady are dripping with them. The canning season is just about in full swing and they will be going fast, so anyone interested in pearls for staining or just plain eating, get in touch with Mrs. Sprague.

Gay Marie Kelly is celebrating her ninth birthday today with the help of her neighborhood girl friends. July Steers, Kitty Beia, Lynn Kaye Bungee, Linda Taggart, Marjorie Schutte, Linda Drake, Teri Heller, Margaret McCartney, Laura Johnson and Patricia Keil are all expected.

Others on the guest list include Kay DeKosier, Barbara Post, Carolyn Press, Maureen Foley, Raulette Bondura, Joanne Labadie, Nancy Talpos, Kathleen Driscoll, Susan Mahr, Mary Ann Sudd and Carol Freuderick.

Gay's big sister, Kathy, and her brother, Bill, will also be present.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Joldersma of Arlington are spending this week at the Greentree hotel, White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., attending a convention.

VACATIONERS RETURN
Fourteen wonderful days of seeing new places and 3,000 miles of motoring have the Jim Garretts over with sights to tell their friends about.

The Garretts with daughters Kathy and Jean, started out for Kingston, Ont., and a boat trip to and around the Thousand Islands. Then on to Montreal, Quebec, St. Anne De Beaupre and on to Maine where they stayed four days.

The White mountains in New Hampshire and the Old Man of the Mountains thrilled all of them, they said, as did Lake Placid. The youngsters, of course, were especially interested in North Pole, Santa's U.S. headquarters. Home came not but pictures and memories of a family vacation will last them a lifetime.

Mary and Howdy Brewer and children, Sherry, Barby and Johnnie, spent last week at North Lakes resort on Lake Belleair. On Friday Alice and Bob Moss and children Jeff and Barbara, joined the Brewers for the weekend. Both families returned to their homes on Auburn drive on Sunday.

Vacationers Vi and Bill Sabo and son, Billy and Robert, returned to their Auburn drive home, too. They went west to see "cowboys" and visited Yellowstone National Park.

ENTERTAINS FOR NEW NEIGHBORS
A barbecue picnic luncheon for a group of old friends from Dearborn took place in the back yard of the home of Mrs. Walter H. Hedley on Wedgewood road.

Gathered round the picnic table were Mr. John Longyear, Mrs. Herbert Fitzgerald, Mrs. George Worthington and Mrs. R. M. Pearson who helped Mrs. Hedley welcome Mrs. Jack Geedman home from a six-week trip to Hawaii.

Mrs. Hedley invited a few neighbors in for a "get-acquainted" meeting with a recent newcomer. Mrs. A. R. Roakilly of Wedgewood. Guests were Mrs. Otto Grob, Mrs. Hope Clark, Mrs. F. O. Lawrence, Mrs. Ronald Bever, Mrs. A. B. McColl, Mrs. John Hobart, Mrs. Gordon Newman, Mrs. J. W. Jacob, Mrs. George Wright and Mrs. Arthur Greiner.

Again on Tuesday, August 23, Mrs. Hedley honored Mrs. Roakilly at a "coffee" and invited others of the neighborhood to meet her and chat awhile.

Guests were Mrs. Robert Den Uyl, Mrs. J. Timothy Cruise, Mrs. Gordon Newman, Mrs. James Traas, Mrs. William Fogarty and Mrs. John McKenna.

Mrs. C. Robert Henderson and daughters, Debbi and Ginny of 1144 Mackinac road, returned home Monday, August 21, after spending four "glorious" weeks at the summer home of Mrs. Henderson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Stephens at Sauble Beach, Ont.

Mr. Henderson spent the first two weeks with his family before returning home to keep bachelor ball, and then commuted weekends. The swimming and weather was at its best. Mrs. Henderson re-ported that all were glad to be out of the city during our hot spell. Upon their return home they acquired a new member to the family—a Dalmatian puppy named "Viki".
