THIS and THAT
By G.R.A.

That Chicagoans who have little money and find hoboing out of the question in this war period are finding the making of false identity cards a kind of amusement. But hoboing is held in some of these Chicagoans' homes is not for the weak of heart.

The United Nations Service in Birmingham has approved an application by the city for a welfare worker. It calls for the city to be reimbursed for $125 for the services of a welfare worker. This is to be paid in five equal installments, with one installment due in two weeks.

The police department has released the name of the man who was shot at on the east side of town. The man's name was not released, but it is believed that he was not a citizen of this city.

In the East Far since 1945 and now with the Civil Air Transport, Karl Koller, a former flying instructor, and two sons are visiting his cousin, Herman Peters, and family, 3339 Marchant. The Kollers have been in the defense industry for many years and have been flying for CTA since 1946. They are here on a leave of absence from their jobs.

The Birmingham School Board is expected to approve the building of an elementary school in the district.

Schedules Of School Openings

BIRMINGHAM

Schools will be open Monday, Sept. 26, for kindergarten students. The high school will open Tuesday, Sept. 27, for all students. The early childhood center will open Wednesday, Sept. 28, for all students. The school will open Thursday, Sept. 29, for all students. The school will open Friday, Sept. 30, for all students. The school will open Saturday, Oct. 1, for all students.

Top Torch Drive Chairman Named

Irvin B. Babcock, 1905 Torch Drive chairman, was appointed by the Birmingham-Bloomingdale Franklin, and assumed the task of chairman of the Torch Drive campaign for the city of Birmingham.

Hand Down Pollution Decrees

By WILLIAM H. THOMAS

Three of four Birmingham residents who were issued traffic tickets for violating the city's new pollution decree have been notified that their cases have been dismissed.

This Ole Car

Tomorrow morning Atlantans will be starting out in their cars for a long holiday trip. They will be leaving the city in their cars and will be on the road for the first time since the war began.

Could Be Hidden Aid To Some

By ROBERT J. MYES

A Birmingham police officer has been on the watch for any suspicious vehicles in the city. He has been on the lookout for any vehicles that may be carrying hidden aid to some.

Like Parachutes, Courts Best
If We Don't Need 'Em

By ROBERT J. MYES

Today's banks are in a situation where they have a large amount of cash, but they need to invest it in order to earn interest. They are not able to lend the money out at the rates they normally would, because the demand for loans has decreased.

Could Be Hidden Aid To Some

By ROBERT J. MYES

A Birmingham police officer has been on the watch for any suspicious vehicles in the city. He has been on the lookout for any vehicles that may be carrying hidden aid to some.

Like Parachutes, Courts Best
If We Don't Need 'Em

By ROBERT J. MYES

Today's banks are in a situation where they have a large amount of cash, but they need to invest it in order to earn interest. They are not able to lend the money out at the rates they normally would, because the demand for loans has decreased.