Clevelander Judges Kirk Art Entries

Dr. Sherman E. Lee of Cleveland will be looking at a good deal of his hometown art when he comes to judge entries in the Kirk-at-the-Hills Outdoor Art Festival.

Dr. Lee, who is a professor at Case Western Reserve University, will be one of three judges for the festival. The others are Mrs. Alice G. Ramsey of Cleveland and Mr. Thomas P. Williams of Buffalo, N.Y.

Local and national artists have submitted entries for the show according to Mrs. C. P. Ramsey, in charge of the festival.

The festival will be held Sept. 16-17 in the park, between 11 a.m. and 5 p.m. each day. There will be an exhibit of paintings, etchings and drawings, and a change-up to the last few years, there will be a children's area where art classes and exhibits will be held.

Last minute entries and student artists can be accepted in the last week of registration.

 rumor has it that some members may be coming from the west coast.

Missionary work, no doubt, was the theme of the annual session of the United Nations, held in New York, the second half of September. The meeting is in session for four weeks in April.
