Two Bloomfield Riding Teams Win in Finale

Irishmen, equestrian riding team from Bloomfield Hills, rode their way to a 747½ out of 900 point score, tops for the state's riding teams, in the season's finale last Saturday and Sunday in Northville.

The Fairliners, girls' team which share coach Chuck Grant with the Irishmen as coach in Bloomfield Hills took second in the season's statistics, although in the weekend event they placed slightly behind the Grosse Pointe Katsah.

THE IRISHMEN, who are Capt. Skip Doud, Zander Duffield, Paul Garlick and Rick Otto beat the Fairliners by only three points, amazingly close, according to J. P. Malley, on whose 200-acre farm the meet was staged.

Malley, who originated the riding meets to encourage Olympic type candidates in Michigan area four years ago, pointed out that at start there were only nine riders. Now there are 48.

Then only two boys, enthusiasm for what was formerly thought a sixty sport has grown until now there are more boys than girls in the meet, Malley says.

HE POINTED out that Frank Duffy, who began in this Michigan league, won a spot on the US Olympic team at the Metamora try-outs a week before the meet on his farm. Another of the Michigan boys, Paul Garlick, started at Metamora, but is under the 18-year-old limit.

With over 100 parents watching the meet, the events included the dressage, highly controlled riding, where high pointers was Kitten James.

under 18, as champions here rode against the champions of Canada, the London Pony club, whose members were 18, 19 and 21 to win the International trophy.

In that competition, two girls were injured in individual accidents, when their horses somewhat. Malley's daughter has slight concussion and on Monday Janet Spenceley, captain of the London team, had a more serious concussion. She was only girl on the foreign team.

With the Irishmen division A champions, and the Fairliners reserve champions in that class, the Division B winners were from Toledo.

IT WAS SECOND time the Irishmen won the Junior Equestrian Challenge trophy, given by Northville's Optimist club.

Placing fourth in the event were the BOB's from Bloomfield Open Hunt club. Also entered were the Outlanders, who had won in other years.

Others riding on teams at the event were Marcia Worley, Howie Miller, Teddy McManus, Rocky Otto, and Marie Lindquist.

Plan Dedication for High School

The board of directors of the Bloomfield Hills Parent-Teacher Organization met in the library of the new high school on Andover at W. Long Lake road to make plans for a dedication and open house for the new high school building.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Thome are chairman of the affair which will be held on Oct. 16 from 2 to 5.

Couples elected to office were: Mrs. Hazel MacGill, eighth elementary school principal, Mrs. Geneva Forslund, Wing Lake president, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gould, vice president, Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Darringer, secretary, Mr. Merrill Bates of the board of education, and Mrs. Russell Strickland, treasurer, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert E.
