

BITS OF BIRMINGHAM

THE ECENTRIC'S Sports Editor Bruno Kearns arrived in the office Monday morning a bit late...

KIRK BUNDY, 8, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Bundy, 1777 Derby road, will be happy when Tawnee, his pet cat, returns from the hospital...

BEN HARDESTY, of Quanton cove, five-time national fly-casting champ, when getting ready to enter Gilbert Lake's Labor day fishing contest...

THREE-TEAM COMMISSIONERS and four city employees spent part of all three days this weekend (Thursday, Friday and Saturday) at the annual Michigan Municipal League convention on Mackinac Island...

EARLY PLEDGING out at Kansas university results in the news this week received by the Mitchell E. Posters, 2371 Indor, that their son, Mitchell B. already is living in the fraternity house while his father stayed back in his "KU" days...

THE STARLINGS ARE BACK. So reports Robert Garner, 75 Manor, who says the birds appear each night at his home between 6 and 6:30 in flocks of 500 to 1,000...

C. E. WILSON'S cows drew some attention at Michigan State Fair last week, but none so much as when the Defense Secretary himself appeared to see how they fared...

VALUABLE HUNTING DOGS already have started to disappear from this area, according to Mrs. K. R. Koehler 245 E. Maple, secretary of the Oakland County Animal Welfare Society...

NEXT TIME the John D. Harrison of Pembroke rock vacation in Quebec, you can bet he will be glad to speak French. Dinning at one of the restaurants there not even the waiter spoke English and the menu was printed in French...

BEULAH ZACHARY, producer of Kukla, Fran and Ollie, back from summer vacation of the TV show, sent Dorothy Zack a note this week, on yellow-bordered stationery overprinted with sketched heads of all the Kuklaploppers...

W. CARLETON SCOTT, 5120 Lane Lake, Bloomfield

Hills, is growing another "Ernest Hemingway" beard—one of several such hirsute adornments (?) behind which he has hid the past few years...
