Dress 'em up cool so they ain't 'wilty' lookin',
Then seest ovah heah... it's just a short ride,

Have a leasurely dinner and chat for a while,

Ef you make this a habit at least once a week,

Early Morn Hunts Begin

Up at 5 a.m. and off to the Bloomfield Open Hunt club for a pre-breakfast ride in the order of the day for 50 to 40 men and women on Wednesday and Saturday mornings these days.

The hunts started recently, and on Oct. 1 the members will begin wearing their formal riding garb. With two foxes run to ground in last week, there are still 100 of fox on the club's 100 acres and the 7 or 800 acres of adjoining estates where the men, women, and teenage riders, and their hounds hunt.

SWIMMING season was highlighted last Thursday night when the Mile club members were honored at dinner. The 24 members of the club formed at 12, 13-year-olds who have swam the mile, have included some who had not swam at all before beginning classes from coach Roy Poullett this summer. Last week, even with opening of school, 71 youngsters swam in one day. The pool stays open until tomorrow.

Franklin Third-Grader Aims For Skating Awards

A summer's ice skating in Montreal has concluded for Claudia Crete, daughter of the Roger Cretes, 30795 Woodside Franklin village.

Her fluent French, since she's visited twice in France with her parents who came from there before she was born, came in most handy in the school in Montreal. There, two small French girls depended on Claudia for translations in talking with the rest of the students, who were from the United States.

A daughter, Julie, was born Sept. 8 to MR. AND MRS. ROBERT J. CARNAHAN, 532 Pershing. The Carnahans have two other daughters, Debbie and Laurie.
