Bloomfield Village Colleges Await Students As Summer Comes to End

With so many of the college set leaving this week for their respective schools, it may appear to residents within that age group. Parties and dinners previous to the exodus have been on the calendar for many of the girls. Gail Weller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Milton G. Weller, 2325 Broadway, entertained a group of nine at her home last Wednesday night. Seated around the dining table were old school friends, now dispersing for schools miles apart. Guested together were Charlene Sutton, who is going to Purdue; Helen Black to the University of Wisconsin; Rosemary Greener, University of Detroit; Anne Duffield, University of Colorado; Ann Seymour, Michigan State University; Carol Goodhue, University of Michigan; and Peggy Hammond, Nancy Brown and Gail Weller who will enter Albion college.

Mira Weller, Jr., will leave for Ohio State where he is a junior in the engineering school. As a member of the B.F.T.V., he spent the summer in Corpus Christi, Texas and Little Rock, Va.

Jo Beecher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Beecher, 659 Westwood, will travel with her family

Great Books Group Selects Leaders

Four new leaders for the Great Books Discussion Group have been announced by Mrs. Harold R. Roehm of Bloomfield Hills, its chairman. Sponsored by Baldwin public library, which provides a meeting place, the group meets every other Wednesday, at 8 p.m., Sept. 21 through May.

"Preparation for the first meeting is to read the Declaration of Independence," Mrs. Roehm said. "Most of us haven't read it in a long time, and it has a lot more to say to us now than it had when we were children."

Max L. Veech will be a co-leader in this discussion, according to Mrs. Roehm. A resident of Pleasant Ridge, Veech is a Detroit trial lawyer and well known corporation lawyer. His colleague will be Anthony Ripley.

OTHER LEADERS will be Pell Hollingshead, lawyer, Bennett

Leaving Sunday will be Stan Thompson, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Thompson, 610 Half Moon drive, to attend Albion college and Ed Sisson, son of Dr. and Mrs. John M. Sisson, 120 Overhill, entering the engineering school at the University of Michigan.

Graduating from Cranbrook last June and winning the John McWhorter scholarship to Cornell, Alan Carlin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip C. Carlin, 211 Williamsbury, left Sunday for that campus. He will be taking the engineering-physics course.

Sally Kelly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Winton J. Kelly, 455 Westwood, leaves tomorrow for the University of Miami, Coral Gables, Fla. She will enter the liberal arts school.

The Charles W. Walton, 880 Yarmouth have a son and daughter away at school this year. Al, who graduated in June from Birmingham high, left last Friday for Denison University at Greencastles, Ind. where he enrolled in the school's liberal arts course.

Their daughter, Barbara, also left on that date, although her classes at Christian Junior College at Columbus, Mo., do not start until Sept. 20. Barbara is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. William Walton, 111 Williamsbury, Ill. before she begins her last year of study at Christian.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Black, 817 Waddington, will travel to Madison, Wis., this weekend with daughter Helen to enroll in the liberal arts course at the University of Wisconsin.

Ann participated in several going away parties last week. One at Trudy McKewen's home on Pleasant was a barbecue which was attended by some 35 school friends. Another was a luncheon for ten at Sue Spencer's home on Shirley drive.

Patti Palmer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Palmer, 3555 Woodale, will fly to New York Sunday to visit her aunt, Mrs. George Woloch for one day. She then will take a train to New London, Conn. to enroll in the Connecticut College for Women.

Ann Best, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. Best, 385 North Cranbrook, left last Saturday for Granville Ohio, to enroll at Denison University. Ann will major in languages.

Prep school will be the destination of James Van Hook, son of the James K. Van Hooks, 3500 Sunnyside when he leaves tomorrow for Lelanau at Traverse City.

Have You Met
 The former Grosse Ile residents who are living at 627 Woodland Birmingham? The William Davi Kramers came here last spring from the island, making their home near Mrs. Kramer's parents, the Urban Woodhouses of 592 Lakeside. The former Cecile R. Woodhouse, she is a Pi Beta Phi. Colleges of she and Kramer, who is assistant buyer of men's clothing at J. L. Hudson Company's Northland Center, are Duke University and University of Colorado.

Farrs Visit Here From LaCanada
 House guests here from LaCanada, Calif., Mrs. John Farr and her son, Fandy, spent three weeks with her sister, Mrs. James Browne of Wakefield driver, and Mrs. T. B. Carpenter of Pilgrim.

Recalling days as school mates, Mrs. Farr and Mrs. Carpenter played golf, swim and sunned at Birmingham Country club.

The visitor was entertained at luncheons and dinner parties where she renewed friendships formed when she lived in Detroit.
