90 Year Old Grandmother Attends Saturday Wedding

The anticipation of a 90-year-old grandmother was realized Saturday when she witnessed the marriage of her grandson, Mrs. Arthur F. Kerby saw Dean Hall Hopper claim Marilyn Faye McWood as his bride at a high noon ceremony in St. Hugo-of-the-Hills. The Rev. Arthur J. Childs read the double-ring ceremony Saturday before 300 wedding guests.

"Grandmother Kerby" graciously entered the church in a gown of charcoal satin with white trim to which was pinned a corsage of dainty white roses. Her pet hat was in black velvet.

James F. Hopper of Pleasant Ridge, had Thomas Murphey of Huntington Woods as his best man. Seating the guests were Arthur B. McWood, Jr., Charles H. Cowles, William W. Henderson, Jr., and Philip R. Penberthy.

Mrs. McWood wore a cocktail length gown of rose peau de soie with lace trim and Mrs. Hopper chose grey silk crepe with a shell-pink jeweled hat. Their corsages were orchids and pink rubrum lilies, respectively.

A family dinner at the DAC, followed the tea dance at Plum Hollow Country club. After a four weeks' honeymoon in California, the couple will make their home in Birmingham.

MRS. DEAN H. HOPPER

THE BRIDE was gowned in white silk duchesse taffeta, designed in the manner of a French court gown. The bateau décolletage was bordered in self material edged with fine fagotting and the sleeves were fitted to traditional points over her wrists. Watteau side pleats accented the bouffant skirt which fell into a formal train. Her fingertip veil was held in place by a circlet of pearls and lace and she carried a cascade of white roses.

Marilyn is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur B. McWood of Shallow Brook drive, Bloomfield Hills. Her father was commissioner of purchases for Detroit under Mayor Edward J. Jeffries. She is the niece of the late Ted Roosevelt, University of Michigan quarterback, and former Detroit Sports writer.

A SORORITY sister and classmate at the University of Michigan, Mrs. Thomas T. Johnson came from Gouglerville, Pa., to be maid of honor. With her cocktail length dress of cotton blue silk chiffon, she wore matching shoes and a head circlet of velvet leaves. She carried pink roses.

In identical frocks were bridesmaids, Mrs. William W. Queen of Grosse Pointe, Mrs. Charles H. Cowles of Toledo, sister of the groom, Jeanne Alice Gregory of Ann Arbor, cousin of the bride; and Diane Martin of Detroit, maid of honor.

DEAN, the son of Mr. and Mrs.

League of Women Voters Courts Newcomers at Tea

A membership tea is first of the League of Women Voters' program of general meeting, unit meetings and special events for this fall.

The tea is set for Wednesday at 1 p.m. at the Community House, a change of date from the regular general meeting day of third Monday of each month. Later meetings will be as usual.

Opportunity for women of Birmingham and vicinity to become acquainted with the work done by the league is provided by the tea. Guests are asked to come at 1 p.m., allowing time for leisurely introductions and a short orientation talk before main business meeting at 1:30. Former league members from other localities are particularly invited.

SECOND WEEK in October sees the start of meetings of the six units, in varied sections of the area at varied hours to accommodate members.

Unit I meets Wednesday mornings from 10 to 12 and is chaired by Mrs. Dean Heier, of Brookchester. Unit II, chaired by Mrs. Allan Keys, of Pleasant, meets Mondays from 1 to 3 p.m. Tuesday meetings are held from 1 to 3 p.m. at Franklin Community church, with Mrs. Christopher Sloman, of Birwood, Southfield township, as chairman.

Unit VI meets Thursday from 8 to 10 p.m., with Mrs. William A. McNamee, of Chesterfield, as chairman.

Former 19-30 Club Planning Reunion

Former members of the 19-30 club are planning a reunion for Sept. 18 at Springdale Park. They, with their families, will meet for a pot luck picnic at 4 p.m.

The group of young people, numbering about 50, were among the many organizations meeting at the Community House.

In announcing the reunion Jeanne Gibbs said she believed most still lived in the area, but contact with several had been lost.

She asked that reservations be mailed to her at 17325 Beechwood, Birmingham, or Eleanor Fernie, 612 Woodland, Birmingham.
