Graefield-Derby

MARGIE MOORE MI 47362

Summer Ends, Residents Begin Fall Activities

Labor Day weekend found many Graefield-Derby residents returning to their homes with memories of vacations stored up for the long winter months ahead.

Among those returning home were the F. W. Chapmans and daughter, Barbara from a vacation in the upper Peninsula of Michigan. They visited Mrs. Chapman's brother, Mr. and Mrs. William Lundberg of Hulsell, and saw Takquamenon Falls, the White Pine area, Porcupine mountains, and the Keweenaw peninsula including Fort Wilkins at Copper Harbor.

The Robert Hattons have also returned to their Pembroke road home after vacationing one week at Topin-a-Bee hotel in the upper peninsula. Even though Mrs. Hutton sprained her ankle and spent three days on crutches, their vacation was a success.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Lindon and children, David, Barbara, Jimmy, are home safe and sound after spending their vacation at Grand Bend, Canada. Catching up with their gardening at their Pembroke road home is the project now at hand.

The Erwin J. Ravens and family have returned to their Pembroke road home after spending one week in Gladwin. They were houseguests of Mrs. Raven's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Osg.

Eastern vacationers Mr. and Mrs. Bernard J. Angel also have returned to their Pembroke road home after a three-week vacation. Among the many places they toured were Boston, Bar Harbor, Maine, West Point and the Finger Lakes.

The George W. Peirces are home to stay for while after a very busy summer. They recently visited Mrs. Peirce's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. George LeFlore of Santa Ana for three weeks.

Then home just in time to attend the luggage show in Chicago. My Peirce is a buyer for the J. L. Hudson Co. On to western New York where they were houseguests of Mr. Peirce's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Peirce. The Peirces' daughter, three-year-old Pamela, is a good traveler and always accompanies her parents on their journeys.

Committees Launch Plan For United Nations Day

In accordance with President Eisenhower's special proclamation of the United Nation's 10th anniversary on Oct. 24, Birmingham's planning committee met at Baldwin Library last week.

By organizing programs to create a more complete understanding of the United Nation's aims, every child and adult in the community will in turn be working for the U. N. and its resolves to preserve peace.

The local committee is headed by Mrs. Eleanor W. Gaffill. A display of posters, pamphlets, books and other reading material is available to the public. A scale model of the United Nations buildings in New York are on display.

According to Mrs. Wilbur Johnstone Birmingham churches will have panel discussions or plays. A Danny Kaye film short, "Assignment Children" will be shown in the two theaters.

Charles Mortensen, representing the Chamber of Commerce and men's service clubs, Rotary, Exchange, Lions, Kiwanis and Hi-12, reported these organizations will participate with films, speakers and the distribution of U. N. material.

SPEAKING for the Woman's National Farm and Garden Association, Mrs. William McCallum is scheduling a free planting as a gift from her organization.

Mrs. Charles J. Shain, International Relations, AAUW and League of Women Voters is in charge of a major program at the Community House, a public lecture during the week designated.

Schools, both public and parochial, Mrs. Oliver Rodgers said would have poster and essay contests on junior high and senior high levels.

Mrs. John Hoppin, Birmingham Women Painters and Mrs. Aled Parrie head the contest committees and will appoint judges. Four prizes will be awarded. Winning posters will be displayed publicly.

Other community groups represented at the meeting, were Altrusa club, Miss Frieda L. Calhoun and Dr. Ebel T. Calhoun; Birmingham Woman's club, Mrs. Carl Binkie; Birmingham Business Women's club, Carrie E. Bassett; D.A.R. Mrs. J. Vandenberg; Community House, Mrs. Charles B. Kass; Friends of the Library, Charles B. Kass; Holy Name Altar society, Mrs. L. M. Hogan; Veterans, Friends of Foreign Wars and MOMS.

home. Guests included grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Paul Schiaff; aunt and uncle Mr. and Mrs. Pat DeLaney of Detroit. After tea cream and cake was served, Richie received a parakeet from his grandparents and named the pet "Perky."

August called for two birthday parties at the V. J. Ford's Pembroke home. Dougie celebrated his sixth birthday with friends Peter Dolan and Ronnie Raven at the movies where they saw Davey Crockett. Following the movie ice cream and cake was enjoyed and then Dougie received the best surprise of all—a buff colored cocker. He named his dog Keebles.

Nancy celebrated her birthday with a swimming party and picnic at the Burroughs farm in Brighton. Her guests were Kay (Columb) and Joan Amorosi of Derby road. That evening a family dinner with all the birthday trimmings completed the party.

There was much activity and excitement at the Harold Hanson Derby road home last Sunday afternoon when Hap Hanson celebrated his fourth birthday amidst gifts, games, balloons, a big birthday cake and lots of ice cream served from a large picnic table on the back lawn.

Hap greeted his guests looking very natty in navy trousers, white shirt and bow tie with a bright red necktie.

Guests were Pamela Lynn Pierce, Mike and Jeff Montelito, Jeff and J. Scott Harrison, Robert Eirch, Johnny Amorosi, Sandy and Linda Weth and Christopher James.

Last Tuesday a farewell picnic party was given at Springdale in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Butler who soon will be moving from Graefield to Port Huron. Graefield friends honoring the Butlers were Mr. and Mrs. Joseph G. Ohey, Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Parker and Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Gallagher.

HAPPY BIRTHDAYS
August 21, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Morrison gave a birthday party in honor of their son, three-year-old Richie, at their Pembroke road home.

Here's the easy, Low Cost way of adding more room to your home. It will increase your home's value and give you more fun doing it. Let Lawson show you how.
