Lone Pine Village Guests Land Plane on Gilbert Lake

Over the holiday weekend, when a seaplane landed on Gilbert Lake, telephones started to ring as one neighbor asked another about the plane's identity.

"Haven't seen a plane land on the lake in the four years I've lived here," said one resident. "I was flabbergasted to see a plane come in and land," said another.

The mystery plane belonged to some Lone Pine Village guests. Mrs. Barley Moe's brother, Fred Munz and his wife Daisy flew in from Greenwood Lake, N.Y. A number of Mrs. Moe's neighbors along Ranch lane had been helping her watch the skies for the expected plane most of the morning.

The Frank Reschke swimming pool was a landmark for the visitors; and as the plane flew over Lone Pine Village, the plane tipped its wings to let the Moores know that the pool and house had been spotted.

Neighbors helped with the feast to welcome Fred and Daisy Munz. A huge rolled rib roast turned brown and succulent on Frank Reschke's rotisserie. Potatoes were baked over hot coals and the aroma of pies, warm from neighbors' ovens, wafted through the air.

The Russell Frinks were there to help along with Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Brower, the Bill Broches and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Griffin.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lindholm of Ardmore spent a few days in North Carolina when they went there to pick up daughter, Nancy, just before school started.

NEW ARRIVAL

Newest resident in Lone Pine Village is Miss Marsha Lynn Campian. The 8-pound, 4-ounce newcomer is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Campian of Ranch lane. Miss Campian was born at Mt. Carmel Mercy hospital Sept. 9.

Little girl; big event: Tiny Ann Todd, daughter of the Jim Todds of Quanton road, got a new dog, and because it is a "girl dog," she says, she calls it "Lady."

BERMUDA TRIP

The George Chesleys, Gilbert Lake road, after spending eight weeks at their cottage near Hidden Valley, are leaving this week for Bermuda. They plan to fly to New York and will see their daughter, Barbara, who was married earlier this summer.

After the Bermuda trip, the Chesleys will return to New York where the family plans to hold a birthday dinner in honor of Mrs. Chesley.

The W. E. Welsh, Timberlake road, have returned from their Caribbean cruise. They came home to relax. Mrs. Welsh admits, The lure of places like Trinidad, Jamaica and Caracas was too much to keep the Welshs tied to a deck chair.

The Samuel Brewers, with their son, Ted, of Lauren court, returned last week after a two-week visit at Carp Lake, about six miles from the Straits.

"The fishing was mighty poor," Ted reports.

Dr. and Mrs. Paul Connely, East Miller way, were at a cocktail-dinner party Saturday night at Bloomfield Hills Country club. A group gathered to honor Elizabeth Ward and Edmond Devine of Pontiac who will be married Sept. 17 and for whom Nancy Connely will be a bridesmaid.

STUDENTS LEAVE

George Frink, son of the Russell Frinks of Lone Pine Village, is leaving Sunday for Lansing where he will enter Michigan State University. This will be George's first year in engineering.

Tony York, who graduated from Birmingham high school last June will enter the University of Detroit engineering school this semester. Tony is the son of the Hayward Yorks of Lahser road.

When Jeanne Common returned home last week from Green Lake, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Common and family of South Miller Way left for Flint to attend the wedding of Ruth Common's sister, Larrile Maddox. Mrs. Fred Zehnder, Hills drive, entertained 10 members of the Redeemer Lutheran church at a luncheon last Thursday.

We Heard It Said By:
GLENN SCHOENHALS, Southfield School District Superintendent. "We recognize we have a serious situation existing in Southfield due to the constantly increasing enrollment. It is most gratifying to us to know that the problem is also recognized by the citizens who have given us an opportunity to do something about it by passing the bond issue."
