It Takes Teamwork at Home Too!

Yes, Mom, Dad and all members of the family can form a savings team now that will guarantee a victory over the problem of sending the children to college later.

Like all teams, it takes a bit of training and the following of rules, but the strategy is simple.

Start a savings account for this purpose now. Plot dates on which to make deposits in your education fund, then hold the line and keep steadfast to your schedule and you're sure to reach the goal.
