Wed in Lutheran Rites, Honeymooning In Cuba

Betty Lou Kelley and Raymond Franklin Freeman exchanged rings and vows at a candlelit ceremony Friday in the Lutheran church of the Redmond with the Rev. Thor-

Feis of France officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul J. Kelley of Redmond, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Freeman of Redmond.

Bill and Blanche, the bride and groom's parents, were married in the church, and the wedding was followed by a reception at the Kelley home. The wedding party consisted of 75 guests, including out-of-towners from Portland and Seattle.

North Adams

DOWNTOWN JACKMAN, ME 04949

W. J. Franks Give Annual Western Style Barbecue

"Wanted: Westerners!" was the theme given by William J. Franks, who brings annual September barbecue party last Saturday.

The fare: chicken and ribs served at table covered with the usual in the park.

The fun: dancing and singing, with the band playing in the background.

The menu: chicken, ribs, hot dogs, hamburgers, and beer.

The dance: line dancing, square dancing, and country dancing.

The music: country western music from the band.

The bar: well-stocked, with a variety of beers and wines.

The guests: family and friends, all enjoying the party.

The weather: beautiful, with clear skies and warm temperatures.

The place: Jackman, ME 04949

Charity Club Has Bridge Dessert

The Charity Club held a successful bridge des-}