Cites Red Cross Aid To Flood Victims

In an address to the Exchange club last week, the Rev. William H. Hamer, rector of St. James Episcopal church, Lake Orion, told of two flood experiences he had as a boy in Connecticut and in Massachusetts, years ago.

Rev. Hamer, chairman of Oakland County chapter of the American Red Cross, told how people relied on Red Cross aid then as they do now in the face of flood victims in the East.

Navy School Grad Reports for Duty

Scheduled to graduate from the Naval Central Information Center Officer's school at the Naval Air Station in Glenview, Ill., this month was Navy Ensign Daniel L. Colwell III, son of Mrs. D. M. Colwell of Cleveland.

Register for Swim Classes at YMCA

Approximately 15 places are still available in the Birmingham YMCA Learn to Swim classes for boys scheduled on Saturdays for Pontiac.

Boys will follow the progressive YV tests under the leadership of George Kwang and his assistants. In this way, youngsters will learn the fundamentals of swimming as well as water safety. Parents interested in having their sons enrolled should contact the local YMCA.

IN THE SPOTLIGHT at the members' reception given by St. Dunstan's Guild of Cranbrook last Sunday afternoon to celebrate the opening of its 25th season was this special anniversary cake donated by Harris Machtis, Jervis McMechan, president of the club, samples the first piece cut by Frederick C. Pew, one of the earliest presidents of the local amateur dramatic group.
