Judging from past football seasons it's time to bring out the rubber socks, winter gloves, and ear buds for the 80 members of this year's Birmingham high school marching band.

Some of the highlights on the musical organization's schedule are playing at all home football and basketball games, all pep assemblies, leading the Halloween and high school field day parades, and giving the annual band concert in the string.

Arnold W. Berndt, director, is starting his twenty-ninth consecutive year as director of the largest band in Birmingham history.

THE GROUP is composed of one flute, seven flutes, 20 clarinets, one alto clarinet, one bass clarinet, one bassoon, nine alto saxes, two tenor saxes, 15 cornets, three French horns, three baritone horns, 11 trombones, one tuba, four drums and one drum major.

Beverly Sellers, junior, is taking on the job of drum major for the band representing both the town and high school for the coming year.

Dr. Davis, New Zealand, sponsored by Student Congress.

Students representing the senior class at the meeting were Carolyn Fremo, Dave Phillips, Trudy Voss, Bill Potter, Janet Palmer, Bobbie Lou Courard, Ann Willett, Clarence Nador, Mary Collins and Jane Russell.

Ron Foley and Bill Donaldson recently joined the Navy.

Toby Wells and Ed Leavenworth are planning a trip to Kenyon college.

UNIQUE'S Distinctive Sabine Pecan

In Solid Pecan from the heart of Louisiana's natural forests.

Come in and see Unique's Sabine Pecan furniture for your bedroom, dining room and living room. Solid Pecan is one of America's finest hardwoods. It has rarely been used for a cabinet wood because of its extreme hardness. But Unique's Master Wood Workers, backed by over a century's experience in handling solid woods, have fashioned solid Pecan into beautiful heirloom pieces.
